"Let's Talk About Sex"

We teach our children that our bodies are amazing, beautiful, and deserving of the utmost respect, and then we give them the information they need to understand their evolving sexuality and take good care of themselves. What IF we had all been taught the same as children? What IF our whole society functioned this way? What does it mean to be a faith community that celebrates both sexuality and respect, especially in this era?

Church Business News

The Pledge Drive is Sailing Forward

In recognition of the completion of the wonderful ship playground, the Stewardship Committee has chosen a theme of "Sailing Forward" for the 2018/19 Campaign. And we've redesigned the way we're doing this Annual Pledge Drive. This year there will be 12 Neighborhood Gatherings over a four-week period beginning February 25 to allow people the opportunity to visit informally with groups of USH members. A Board member or one of the Revs will be at each event, providing a short update about USH plans and operations during the coming year. This should be an enjoyable afternoon or evening!

These gatherings will also be our opportunity to think about what USH means to you and your family and the financial commitment you are willing to make to allow us to ensure that those activities and services occur. We ask you to learn about fair share giving and see how your giving fits into the suggested levels for meaningful contributions.

Attendees will be asked to provide your pledge commitment at these neighborhood meetings if at all possible. Of course, your pledges will be private and handled confidentially.

If you are not able to attend the Neighborhood Gathering that you are invited to, you may select another one that is more convenient from the schedule. Click HERE to view.

Several events will have childcare and two are wheelchair accessible. Please refer to the link for the schedule if you need either.

The Stewardship Committee will be staffing a table in Fellowship Hall after service for the next several weeks to answer questions. Or contact one of the committee members: Carolyn Carlson, Tara Cote, Kate Gervais, Ginny Hedrick, Caron Lanouette and Kim McLain. Click HERE to learn more about Stewardship 2018!

Get Involved at USH - Be Part of a Great Team!

Get more connected with this congregation through volunteering. Below are some areas, both seasonal and year-round, where Volunteers are especially needed and welcome:

The USH Sunday Welcome Team

The Welcome Team makes USH outstanding in its open and friendly atmosphere and helps newcomers find their way around our Meeting House on Sundays. Choose your Sundays based on your schedule! Duties include: Front and Side Door Greeters before the Sunday Service, Ushers, and Greeting folks at the Welcome Table before the service and the Downstairs Visitors Table during coffee hour. Contact Linda Clark at ushlindaclark@gmail.com, phone the office at 860-233-9897, or talk to Brian Harvey (pictured) if you are interested in being part of this wonderful group of volunteers.

Office Volunteers

If you are computer-comfortable and familiar with Microsoft Word, Gmail, and data entry, the office is in need of you. How you can help: Inserting the Happenings/Orders of Service into the Cover, Making Nametags, Basic updates to printed materials on the computer, Making copies of printed materials. Please let Linda Clark know if you're able to help out in the office during the week for an hour or two: email ushlindaclark@gmail.com or call 860-233-9897.

Join The Choir

Director of Music Ministries, Sam Moffett, is excited to be working with our USH Choir. To all in the community who have ever thought about joining the choir: come and sing! If you would like to join, just try it out, or for more information, e-mail Sam at smoffett@ushartford.com.

The Book Table During Coffee Hour

Everybody enjoys browsing through the books for sale during coffee hour. In order to continue, we are in need of some help setting them up and putting them away. Please contact Clara Horn if you are able to help out with this: clara.horn@comcast.net.

Religious Education

The DRE is very short-handed for teachers in our Pre-K3-2nd grade class and in our middle school class. We desperately need teachers and assistants. The commitment is 1-2 Sundays every 4-7 weeks. If you are interested, have any questions, or would like to see the curriculum, please let Rayla know: 860-233-9897 ext 104 | dre@ushartford.com.

Programs for Adults and Families Sub-Council

The Programs for Adults and Families Sub-Council needs members to continue doing its work coordinating the programs many of us participate in and enjoy at the Meeting House. Please step up and help if you are able! For more information and/or to join this Sub-Council, please contact Council on Community Within Chair, Christopher Wilt at chris.wilt@gmail.com.

Sunday Service Photos

Please Read This: For many years, my reporting on Sunday services for the Enews (and even long before there was an E-News) has been my way of sharing the love for the USH.

But it's now my time to retire. I'll miss it, of course, but change can be good for all. So thank you, faithful readers. -Kayla

Personal News of Our Community

A Message from Barbara Fraher

My brother, John Van House of Atlanta, GA died this morning of Lou Gehrig's Disease. He was 71. He was a dear good man who kept up a cheerful attitude all though his illness. He was a kind brother to me always. His wife Pat, son Fr. Joseph Van House, daughter Jennifer Hutcheson and his grandchildren and our four sisters will miss him profoundly.

I love our congregation and I feel so lucky to be a part of us, USH.

Dinner For USH People Of Color With The Revs.

Saturday, February 24
From 5:00pm To 8:00pm

If you identify as a Person of Color/Latinx/Indigenous, please check your email for an invitation to dinner and conversation with the Revs. We have done our best to invite all those connected with USH who we know or think identify as People of Color – and we realize that this is an imperfect process, so please let RevCathy know if you received the invitation and don't identify as a person of color or if we have missed you.

We know racism is real – in the world and at USH, especially in this era when we have a president who actively supports white supremacists. We are convening this space to hear from you about your experience as a person of color at USH as well as talking together about your dreams and desires for USH moving forward. Please RSVP on the Evite or to RevCathy and let us know if you need childcare or have other accessibility needs.

With love, Revs Cathy and Heather, and USH members Gloria Francesca Mengual (Race Matters leader), Rayla Mattson (Director of Religious Education), and Margalie Belizaire (partner in developing this work together).

What is the NAMI Basics Education Program?

NAMI Basics is a free, six-session program designed for parents and other family caregivers of children and adolescents with emotional and behavioral difficulties. NAMI Basics helps parents and other family caregivers of children to understand the illnesses that are causing those behavioral difficulties, and the critical role families play in the treatment of those illnesses. The program is taught by trained teachers who are also the parents or family caregivers of individuals who experienced emotional or behavioral difficulties prior to age 13.

Participant Perspectives

"This is such a great step by step program that walks parents every step of the way. It is as if you are holding their hand through it all."

"The course is inclusive of almost all aspects of family and child resources. I could have spent a lifetime getting all this information on my own. I feel supported, strong and ready to go forward."

"NAMI Basics bridges the gap. It provides help that can't be found in a doctor's office."

This is the story of how America's first women soldiers helped win World War I, earned the vote, and fought the U.S. Army. In 1918, the U.S. Army Signal Corps sent 223 women to France. They were masters of the latest technology: the telephone switchboard. General John Pershing, commander of the American Expeditionary Forces, demanded female "wire experts" when he discovered that inexperienced doughboys were unable to keep him connected with troops under fire. Without communications for even an hour, the army would collapse. While suffragettes picketed the White House and President Woodrow Wilson struggled to persuade a segregationist Congress to give women of all races the vote, these competent and courageous young women swore the Army oath. Elizabeth Cobbs reveals the challenges they faced in a war zone where male soldiers welcomed, resented, wooed, mocked, saluted, and ultimately celebrated them. They received a baptism by fire when German troops pounded Paris with heavy artillery. Some followed "Black Jack" Pershing to battlefields where they served through shelling and bombardment. Grace Banker, their 25-year-old leader, won the Distinguished Service Medal. The army discharged the last Hello Girls in 1920, the same year Congress ratified the Nineteenth Amendment granting the ballot. When the operators sailed home, the army unexpectedly dismissed them without veterans' benefits. They began a sixty-year battle that a handful of survivors carried to triumph in 1979. With the help of the National Organization for Women, Senator Barry Goldwater, and a crusading Seattle attorney, they triumphed over the U.S. Army.

Circle Dinners

Circle Dinners give all participants an opportunity to expand their social circles at USH and learn more about some of the interesting people who call USH their spiritual home. The dinners are scheduled to be held on the 2nd Saturday of every odd-numbered month. (Still ahead: May 12). The purpose of these Dinner Parties is to foster social camaraderie among new and more established members of USH. For participants, eight to ten adults are randomly assigned in different groupings for each dinner. The host furnishes the entree, beverage and bread. Guests are assigned to bring appetizers, salad, side dish or dessert. Right now we are gauging the interest and demand for dinner locations. We anticipate 2 to 3 locations for each date. Please let Chris Wilt know as soon as possible if you would be willing to host a dinner party at your home.

Registration: Participants can sign up for as many or as few dates as they wish. Registration can be done online, using the following link: <https://goo.gl/forms/qkbiZBQzZbWTLpQF3>

The registration form contains a space for: 1) listing dietary restrictions, and 2) if you plan to bring your children. We will try to group families with kids together so that they have some playmates for the evening. We will discuss providing supervision for children where appropriate. You are not required to be a host in order to participate in this program. Questions: Contact Chris Wilt, 603-401-5704. -Submitted by Brian Harvey

Small Group Ministries:

Sign-up is open for a new Small Group Ministry

What is Small Group Ministry?

This is a unique opportunity to strengthen your connections with USH members and friends by sharing your life experiences with them in a safe, confidential space—a covenant group. Get to know others better and you may also get to know yourself better too! A trained facilitator will have special readings and questions to guide your sharing and deep listening experience. Watch for announcements of Small Group Ministry offerings in E-News and during coffee hour after the service at the Programs Table in Fellowship Hall or at the Welcome Table in the main lobby. Contact Esther McKone to register or get more information on Small Group Ministry, email: estmckone(at)aol.com, phone 860 677 6682.

Participation & Planning for Small Group Ministries:

I am encouraging all those who have an interest in the Small Group Ministry (SGM) program at USH to contact me. Members and friends who would like to have input into the readings that inspire us to share during the SGM sessions should contact Esther McKone, email - Estmckone(at)aol.com or call 860-677-6682.

Planning future SGMs: I am considering having more focused groups for the future encompassing such issues as (1) Disabilities, 2) Structural Racism, and 3) Spirituality of nature-based, earth-centered faiths and 4) A gender identity focused SGM.

So the ideas are plentiful, but I also need people willing to contribute their skills and talents toward the goal of continuing a robust Small Group Ministry program at the Unitarian Society of Hartford. -Submitted by Esther McKone

From Minister, Rev. Adam: A Response to Another Mass Shooting

Last Sunday, I ended my sermon saying: "...in order to get to the day when we don't need to talk about hard things in church anymore, we must face the challenges and strengthen our spirits so that we meet the transformational possibilities immediately before us. That is the truest work of religion: to help us transform what is wounded into something healed, what is evil into what is good, what is incomplete into what is whole."

This week, we've seen yet another school shooting in Florida. More dead children and educators. It is beyond my capacity to understand how this is possible. I know that there are political forces at work, and apathy at work, and exhaustion and despair, too. I still cannot make sense of it. #### Registration and Housing Open March 1.

GA Registration and the GA Housing Reservation System open at 9 a.m. CST. at www.uua.org/ga/travel.

Grounded in a deep belief that we are all prophets, Unitarian Universalists ask, "How can we faithfully meet the demands of our time?" The call to witness and act for justice in our society and in the world is clear. So, too, is the call to examine our structures and practices, dismantling and transforming those which fail to recognize the full humanity of all people and to honor the interdependent web of life. Join us in Kansas City as we dive deeply into questions of mission for our Unitarian Universalist Association, for our congregations and communities, and for each of us as individuals.

Excellent Programming: GA will offer more than 175 programming selections over the course of five days. Major worships this year will be lead by UUA President Rev. Susan Frederick-Gray and Rev. Sofia Betancourt. More programming details are available at www.uua.org/ga.

Peace – as we come to the close of the USH-Enews week.
Be kind to others – and to yourself.

Our Unitarian Universalist Principles: The member congregations of the Unitarian Universalist Association covenant to affirm and promote: the inherent worth and dignity of every person; justice, equity, and compassion in human relations; acceptance of one another and encouragement to spiritual growth in our congregations; a free and responsible search for truth and meaning; the right of conscience and the use of the democratic process, within our congregations and in society at large; the goal of world community with peace, liberty, and justice for all; respect for the interdependent web of all existence, of which we are a part.
