Worshipping Together Since 1830

Revs. Cathy & Heather Rion Starr

Worship Service: Sunday, February 18, 2018
10:30am

Rev. Erica Richmond, Affiliated Community Minister
Judy Robbins, Worship Associate
"Roots and Wings"

Typically, on the first Sunday of February, Unitarian Universalist congregations honor the work of community ministries. This is an opportunity to look at the way our Unitarian Universalist beliefs show up in broader, interfaith contexts. This Sunday, Rev. Erica, our Affiliated Community Minister, will talk about her work as a hospital chaplain, and how she is invited to respond to other traditions, rituals and theologies. As Christians enter Lent, Rev. Erica will be reflecting on Ash Wednesday and how rituals of grief show up in the hospital.

E-News Contributors please take note: The deadline for USH E-News submissions is Tuesday at 12 Noon. Please include the dates that the submission should be included in the 'Subject' field.

Semi-Annual Meeting Recap

The USH Board conducted an informal semi-annual congregational meeting after the service on February 12. Over 70 members and friends attended.

President Sherry Manetta welcomed everyone and shared her appreciation for all of the positive developments of recent months.

Stewardship Chair Kate Gervais shared her subcouncil's plans for an exciting new approach this year. The Stewardship campaign, from February 25 to March 23, will be centered on neighborhood meetings in members' homes, where everyone will have a chance to meet and talk about the Meeting House in a comfortable small group. Please respond promptly and graciously to the invitation you will receive, probably by email, this week.

Board member and Spiritual Life Council Chair Stephanie Briggs shared news that the Board is exploring the possibility of hiring a part-time ministerial intern for 2 years beginning this fall. If this plan works out, the intern could provide additional diversity in the pulpit and possibly also much needed support for the development and coordination of adult programs.

Board member and Social Justice Council Chair Judy Sullivan touched briefly on some of the many ongoing congregational social justice activities, including Green Sanctuary's work on the holiday re-gifting sale and the new book discussion group about the Community Resilience Reader, accessibility work including the new hearing loop in the sanctuary, our new accessible playground and teacher training about accessibility, an upcoming community program at USH with the National Alliance on Mental Illness and Unified Theater Hartford, tutoring at Noah Webster School, helping supply the Bushnell Food Pantry, Race Matters groups upcoming meeting for the Revs to hear concerns of members and friends of color, ongoing family refugee resettlement work, working with the Village for Families and Children, and opportunities for advocacy and assistance for displaced families from Puerto Rico.

President Elect Joe Rubin outlined some current Board priorities, including completion of the new Strategic Plan (done), support for the new approach to Stewardship (in progress), development of a long term capital plan (in early stages), provide clarity about the endowment (in progress, with report expected by Fall), imminent major and hopefully game-changing roof repairs, and study of possible lighting and sound improvements for the sanctuary (under active study).

Joe then invited everyone to share (in writing) their ideas about where congregational focus should be for our future and which of those ideas members wanted to help with, and asking that all ideas be tied to one of our 5 strategic plan goals. There were many enthusiastic suggestions. The Board will compile and review all of the thoughts collected, share them with the congregation, and consider how they will help the Board formulate future policy development. - Submitted by Joe Rubin

Personal News of Our Community

Changes at The Village for Families and Children

The Village for Families and Children has added adult programs to its existing services. Adult support includes mental health and substance abuse services and focused trauma treatment services. The goal is to create a healthy family and community support system by helping adults address their own issues of trauma and mental health. This can create a community of strength and cohesion where children can return home while keeping their own healing intact. This Sunday, February 18th, from 11:30-12:15, Jennifer Meligonis DeJohn from The Village will be in Fellowship Hall. She will have materials about Adult Programming and will be available to discuss these new initiatives.

USH has been a supportive community for the children from The Village. The Festival of the Season brings joy to the children. In many ways, USH has been a constant in the lives of the children at The Village for Families and Children.

On Sunday March 11th the Good Neighbor Offering will be for The Village. I hope you will continue to support The Village as they begin their new programs for adults, so that the adults in the lives of the children have the opportunity to address their own mental health problems and establish communities of strength.

Dinner For USH People Of Color
With The Revs.

Saturday, February 24

From 5:00pm To 8:00pm

If you identify as a Person of Color/Latinx/Indigenous, please check your email for an invitation to dinner and conversation with the Revs. We have done our best to invite all those connected with USH who we know or think identify as People of Color – and we realize that this is an imperfect process, so please let RevCathy know if you received the invitation and don't identify as a person of color or if we have missed you.

We know racism is real – in the world and at USH, especially in this era when we have a president who actively supports white supremacists. We are convening this space to hear from you about your experience as a person of color at USH as well as talking together about your dreams and desires for USH moving forward. Please RSVP on the Evite or to RevCathy by Monday, February 19th and let us know if you need childcare or have other accessibility needs.

With love, Revs Cathy and Heather, and USH members Gloria Francesca Mengual (Race Matters leader), Rayla Mattson (Director of Religious Education), and Margalie Belizaire (partner in developing this work together).

The Drama Behind the Set

Sunday, Feb 25, 12:15-1:15 PM in the Chapel

A Program for All USH Members and Friends

Have you ever been awed by a theatrical set and wondered "How do they do that?" Come and listen to Aaron and Paula Bleck give you a bit of insight into what makes the "Theatre Magic" happen. Aaron is the Technical Director for Hartford Stage and Paula is the Scenic Artist for The Hartt School. With more than 20 years in the business let them take you from the designer's plans through fabrication and installation of a unique set for every show. After this you will have a whole new appreciation of what it takes to put on a show.

Reminder - the Youth Group will be selling soup this Sunday during fellowship hour, or you may bring your own lunch. This program is another in the "Programs for All" series sponsored for many years by the USH Women's Alliance, to build community.

Free for all, no reservations required.

*www.goodreads.com.

This is the story of how America's first women soldiers helped win World War I, earned the vote, and fought the U.S. Army. In 1918, the U.S. Army Signal Corps sent 223 women to France. They were masters of the latest technology: the telephone switchboard. General John Pershing, commander of the American Expeditionary Forces, demanded female "wire experts" when he discovered that inexperienced doughboys were unable to keep him connected with troops under fire. Without communications for even an hour, the army would collapse. While suffragettes picketed the White House and President Woodrow Wilson struggled to persuade a segregationist Congress to give women of all races the vote, these competent and courageous young women swore the Army oath. Elizabeth Cobbs reveals the challenges they faced in a war zone where male soldiers welcomed, resented, wooed, mocked, saluted, and ultimately celebrated them. They received a baptism by fire when German troops pounded Paris with heavy artillery. Some followed “Black Jack” Pershing to battlefields where they served through shelling and bombardment. Grace Banker, their 25-year-old leader, won the Distinguished Service Medal. The army discharged the last Hello Girls in 1920, the same year Congress ratified the Nineteenth Amendment granting the ballot. When the operators sailed home, the army unexpectedly dismissed them without veterans’ benefits. They began a sixty-year battle that a handful of survivors carried to triumph in 1979. With the help of the National Organization for Women, Senator Barry Goldwater, and a crusading Seattle attorney, they triumphed over the U.S. Army.

Circle Dinners

Circle Dinners give all participants an opportunity to expand their social circles at USH and learn more about some of the interesting people who call USH their spiritual home. The dinners are scheduled to be held on the 2nd Saturday of every odd-numbered month. (Still ahead:

May 12). The purpose of these Dinner Parties is to foster social camaraderie among new and more established members of USH. For participants, eight to ten adults are randomly assigned in different groupings for each dinner. The host furnishes the entree, beverage and bread. Guests are assigned to bring appetizers, salad, side dish or dessert. Right now we are gauging the interest and demand for dinner locations. We anticipate 2 to 3 locations for each date. Please let Chris Wilt know as soon as possible if you would be willing to host a dinner party at your home.

Registration: Participants can sign up for as many or as few dates as they wish. Registration can be done online, using the following link: <https://goo.gl/forms/qkbiZBQzZbWTLpQF3>

The registration form contains a space for: 1) listing dietary restrictions, and 2) if you plan to bring your children. We will try to group families with kids together so that they have some playmates for the evening. We will discuss providing supervision for children where appropriate. You are not required to be a host in order to participate in this program. Questions: Contact Chris Wilt, 603-401-5704. -Submitted by Brian Harvey Get to know others better and you may also get to know yourself better too! A trained facilitator will have special readings and questions to guide your sharing and deep listening experience. Planning future SGMs: I am considering having more focused groups for the future encompassing such issues as (1) Disabilities, 2) Structural Racism, and 3) Spirituality of nature-based, earth-centered faiths and 4) A gender identity focused SGM.

So the ideas are plentiful, but I also need people willing to contribute their skills and talents toward the goal of continuing a robust Small Group Ministry program at the Unitarian Society of Hartford. -Submitted by Esther McKone GA Registration and the GA Housing Reservation System open at 9 a.m. CST. at www.uua.org/ga/travel.

Grounded in a deep belief that we are all prophets, Unitarian Universalists ask, "How can we faithfully meet the demands of our time?" The call to witness and act for justice in our society and in the world is clear. So, too, is the call to examine our structures and practices, dismantling and transforming those which fail to recognize the full humanity of all people and to honor the interdependent web of life. Join us in Kansas City as we dive deeply into questions of mission for our Unitarian Universalist Association, for our congregations and communities, and for each of us as individuals.

Excellent Programming: GA will offer more than 175 programming selections over the course of five days. Major worships this year will be lead by UUA President Rev. Susan Frederick-Gray and Rev. Sofia Betancourt. More programming details are available at www.uua.org/ga.

Peace – as we come to the close of the USH-Enews week.
Be kind to others – and to yourself.

Our Unitarian Universalist Principles: The member congregations of the Unitarian Universalist Association covenant to affirm and promote: the inherent worth and dignity of every person; justice, equity, and compassion in human relations; acceptance of one another and encouragement to spiritual growth in our congregations; a free and responsible search for truth and meaning; the right of conscience and the use of the democratic process, within our congregations and in society at large; the goal of world community with peace, liberty, and justice for all; respect for the interdependent web of all existence, of which we are a part.
