Building Community Since 1830

Revs. Cathy & Heather Rion Starr

<https://www.uuwr.org>

Worship Service: Sunday, September 16, 2018
10:30am (Hymn sing starts at 10:15)
"Ingathering and Water Ceremony Service: Deepening and Connection"
Revs. Cathy and Heather Rion Starr, Co-Ministers
John Brancato, Worship Associate

Sunday, September 16th is our annual Ingathering and Water Ceremony service for all ages, beginning with a hymn sing at 10:15am. Remember to gather some water for this service from wherever and however you have spent your summer days. (There will also be a pitcher of water from which to pour if you forget to bring your own.) We will gather together and remind one another of how deeply and fully we are nourished and inspired by one another, by the natural world, by many sources of wisdom and many forms of spiritual practice. Mark your calendars, bring a friend or neighbor, a treat to share at coffee hour, gather your small container of water "literal or symbolic," and come nourish your spirit at our well of community.

Mmmm: Super-Special Treats This Sunday!

Enjoy terrific food and drink following this year's Ingathering Service! Head downstairs following the service and enjoy extra-special tasty treats, delicious drinks and fun interactions with friendly folks - both known and new to YOU!

Marion Cook's Memorial Service

Marion Cook's Memorial Service will be on Saturday, September 22nd at 11am here at USH. Please speak with Janice Newton if you can help with the Memorial Reception (see details below).

MEMORIAL RECEPTIONS AT THE MEETING HOUSE -- and you?!

Janice Newton, Nancy Reed, and Louise Schmoll, who have so ably created such beautiful memorial receptions for some years here at the Meeting House, will be stepping back from this role after Marion Cook's September 22 (11am) Memorial. They'll still be available for consultation and support, but we are going to need to identify some new folks to coordinate the Receptions if we wish to continue them in the way they've been.

For now, I want to let you know of this transition, make sure you are aware of the Marion Cook service in hopes that perhaps you can "shadow," provide some extra help, and/or lurk around (smile) during the Reception and know how they're done, and consider your own level of energy and interest in serving the USH in this significant way. Would you please consider helping maintain our tradition of lovely Memorial Receptions at the Meeting House?

We have a Memorials listserv and you can be added to it by e-mailing Linda Clark (or simply reply to this E-news) to ask to please "add me to the Memorials listserv." Many hands make light work, and we would love to have "more hands on deck" to care for families and our community in times of loss.

~Thoughtfully, RevHeather

From the Revs~

Rev's General Schedule and how to reach us

As a reminder as we begin another church year, here is our schedule of when we are generally working and available. We strive to be available while also protecting time for strategic thinking and worship planning, as well as our non-USH time for family, RevHeather's role as half-time Consulting Minister in Danbury, etc. It's easiest for us to schedule with you a couple weeks (or more!) ahead, unless something comes up that is truly urgent.

To schedule with RevCathy, use the scheduler at this link: <https://RevCathyRionStarr.as.me/> or email

(revcathy(at)ushartford.com) or call (860-233-9897x103). To schedule with RevHeather, email RevHeatherRionStarr(at)gmail.com or call 860-233-9897x103.

- Sundays: We are here and focused on worship and greeting members and newcomers, as we hope everyone is! (If you really must talk business, please save it until after the receiving line ends.) We are off one Sunday a month, and RevHeather will be in Danbury some Sundays as well.
- Monday: Sabbath. This is the one day that we are completely off and unavailable unless someone is in the hospital or the building is on fire. (Note that RevCathy often turns off her cell phone, and you'll occasionally see RevHeather catching up on work on Mondays.)
- RevHeather is in the office Tuesday & Wednesday and is available sporadically other days.
- RevCathy is in the office Tuesday & Thursday. Wednesday and Friday are reserved for sermon writing and not working.
- Evenings and Saturdays: We meet as needed with groups, though we try to limit our evening meetings to two per week.

Saturdays we are available by phone for urgent matters, Sunday logistics, memorial services and weddings.

Who does what? RevCathy is Lead Minister for the Spiritual Life Council (Worship, Religious Education, Music, Chancel Arts) and the Social Justice Council and subcouncils. RevCathy is also lead minister for all things finance.

RevHeather is Lead Minister for Administration (Building, Art, Archives, Library), and Community Within (Membership, Adult Programs, Caring Network, and more).

We both share worship, pastoral care, and Board work. Feel free to contact either or both of us for any of these things.

RE News You Can Use:

Rayla D. Mattson, Director of Religious Education

Please join us as we worship in full community Sunday morning, September 16th. We look forward to seeing everyone again after what I hope was an enjoyable summer. Please also join us next week as we kick-off our first RE session for this program year.

Buddy Bags: This year we are once again working to bridge the gap between our generations. We will partner one adult with one child as secret buddies. Each week both buddies will place get-to-know you items or letters into the buddy bag based on the symbol they share. Then at the October pancake breakfast, we will reveal everyone's secret buddy. Hopefully they will then get to know each other more at the pancake breakfast and at other events we will have throughout the year. Please send an email to dre@ushartford.com and let me know if you or your child would like to participate. Please note it is open to everyone regardless of whether you have a child in the program or not. Thanks.

Please be advised that there will be a parent meeting led by Rob Spector for the Youth Group on Ingathering Sunday, September 16, after the service. The meeting will be held in the Youth Group room and will be about ten minutes.

On September 28th, the Mattson family will begin hosting an exchange student from Germany by the name of Hauke. He is participating in a UU exchange from his home UU congregation in Germany. While he is staying with us, he is hoping to learn more about American life, high schools here and what it means to be part of the USH community. I am hoping that some of our high school students can have him spend a day or two at their school with them and that some of our families will take him for a day trip or to an event with them so he can get to know our broader USH community.

Please let me know if any of you are interested in helping to support this amazing experience that Bradshaw will hopefully be going to spend part of next summer with Hauke and his family in Germany as part of the exchange. We will be looking for support later this year for this endeavor as well. Thank you.

Americans of Conscience Checklist, Week of September 9, 2018

By Jen Hofmann

96 weeks down, 8 weeks to midterm elections.

A word on gratitude

As you may already know, one of the guiding principles of the AoC Checklist is to practice gratitude. There's solid research that connects the act of expressing thanks with increased feelings of well-being and connection with others. I regularly suggest thanking people--from grassroots leaders to elected officials on both sides of the proverbial aisle--for doing courageous things.

Gratitude makes you feel more hopeful. It lets people know their efforts are seen and matter. And it also reminds us that there's more to democracy than "my side winning." In reality, democracy works when we de-escalate the rhetoric, find common ground, and even say thank you. It's what we saw at Sen. McCain's funeral when two former "adversaries" gave eulogies with tears in their eyes: gratitude. When we find courage to extend a hand or a kind word, a better future is possible. So this week, our team collected a healthy dose of thank-yous. Write just one note or many, but indulge your heart in the practice of gratitude and notice the impact it has on you.

¶ value democracy. Guided by respect and collaboration, we create a government for the people, by the people.

"Open Hearts for Learning and Unlearning"

Rev. Cathy Rion Starr, Co-Minister

Laurie Kelliher, Worship Associate

"When any real progress is made, we unlearn and learn anew what we thought we knew before." –Henry David Thoreau. Have you made progress this summer? Have you basked in the cool evening breeze or baked in the sun, or have you been working hard with your hands or in the office? We closed our Spiritual Practices Summer Worship Series with reflection together about the learning and unlearning of spiritual practices we've done and wish to continue to strengthen our spirits, tend to our hearts' longings, and weather the storms of life.

Connection Circles (formerly known as Small Group Ministries)

Connection Circles (formerly known as Small Group Ministries) coming up!

There are still some spaces left for Fall Connection Circle groups. A group exploring general readings, facilitated by Martha Bradley, will meet on Tuesday evenings from 7-9 at Martha's home in West Hartford beginning October 9.

A disability focused group, facilitated by Don Hope, will meet on Saturday mornings from 10-12 at the Meeting House beginning September 29.

Sign-up sheets will be available after the services at the adult programs table (when possible) in Fellowship Hall until spaces are filled. Or you can sign up by contacting Martha Bradley at marthabradley49@yahoo.com, or call or text 860-305-3307. Groups are generally limited to 10 members, so don't miss your chance to participate – sign up soon.

What is Small Group Ministry?

This is a unique opportunity to strengthen your connections with USH members and friends by sharing your life experiences with them in a safe, confidential space – a covenant group. Get to know others better and you may also get to know yourself better too! A trained facilitator will have special readings and questions to guide your sharing and deep listening experience. Watch for announcements of Small Group Ministry offerings in E-News, during coffee hour after the service at the Programs Table (when available) in Fellowship Hall, or at the Welcome Table in the main lobby. Contact Esther McKone to register or get more information on Small Group Ministry, email: estmckone\(at\)aol.com, phone 860 677 6682.

Participation & Planning for Small Group Ministries:

I am encouraging all those who have an interest in the Small Group Ministry (SGM) program at USH to contact me. Members and friends who would like to have input into the readings that inspire us to share during the SGM sessions should contact Esther McKone, email - Estmckone\(at\)aol.com or call 860-677-6682.

Planning future SGMs: I am considering having more focused groups for the future encompassing such issues as (1) Disabilities, 2) Structural Racism, 3) Spirituality of nature-based, earth-centered faiths and 4) A gender identity focused SGM. So the ideas are plentiful, but I also need people willing to contribute their skills and talents toward the goal of continuing a robust Small Group Ministry program at the Unitarian Society of Hartford. Let me know if you can help! - Submitted by Esther McKone

Deepening our Connections through Culturally Relevant Storytelling

Where: Emerson; When: Sunday, September 16, 12:30pm–1:30 p.m; Cost: Free

Contact: Gloria Francesca Mengual at gloriafmengual@gmail.com for more information.

How since the beginning of time, storytelling has been a way to deepen our connections will be discussed, then experienced. A brief discussion will take place about how not knowing each others' stories can result in our making assumptions, based on our own biases. Participants then will participate in a storytelling activity known as The Cultural Timeline. By sharing our ideas, passions and our history, we move from seeing someone as the 'other' to recognizing our commonalities. Yes, we have varied perspectives, but more important, we also have shared values. Stop in to learn more about storytelling and the power it provides to relationship-building in the increasingly divided "us-them" mentality so prevalent in this country today. This session was provided once before and was very well-received by participants. If you missed it, here's another chance; if you attended the previous one, come again to hear other USH folks' stories and share another one of yours.

A Message from Rayla:

Due to unforeseen circumstances, the kids and I are needing to move after living in our rented home in Bloomfield for the last 5 years. As a result of circumstances from my divorce, I am running into some snags acquiring another place in town to reside. I am looking for some assistance in finding some creative solutions. I have some ideas and thoughts but need some help. We must stay in town due to the requirements of Sage's Special Education program and we rather like the town as well. If you are open to having some positive and healthy discussions on options, I'd love to hear from you. Thank you! ~Rayla D. Mark your calendar for Sunday, October 21, 2018 at 12:00 noon for the Unitarian Society of Hartford's annual fundraising auction online and in-person. We need church members, visitors, friends and family, local businesses that provide services to you, etc. to donate their "Skills and Thrills" to this auction. The thrills are all about fun experiences: Are you a terrific trail guide? Could you lead a kayaking trip? Offer a weekend stay at your second home? The possibilities are only limited by your creativity! This auction is one of the important ways for us to raise funds for the church and all get to know each other a little better. We can't wait to see what will be offered this year! Any questions? Unitarian Society of Hartford Community Garden Plot and Labyrinth in the KNOX Watkinson

Community Garden
September: our final month of Labyrinth Tending 2018! It's the fourth summer gradually growing our Plant-based Labyrinth in the USH Plot of the Watkinson Community Garden!

If you haven't ever made your way down to the base of the Meeting House parking lot, do. There you will find an entrance to a magical world--a massive Community Garden where in the summertime, community and callaloo abound. Each of the past three summers, some progress has been made towards a plant-based labyrinth in our USH Community Garden Plot, and you can really feel that patience and perseverance down there, now! Take a walk, pull some weeds, ring the bell, breathe in deeply. If you are able and interested in getting your hands in the dirt and supporting this effort, your participation is welcome. Here's a sign-up sheet for these remaining days of September to help space out our efforts: <http://signup.com/go/mgdshSu>.

We continue to figure out how best to nurture this project in a low-key and sustainable summer way. Thanks to Susan Hope, Esther McKone, and Diane Cadrain for a lovely time gardening together in late June. Just a few people working together for just a few hours can lift each other's spirits and make a little more green magic happen! ~RevHeather

Fall 2018 Collaboration with Hartford Stage: Make Believe

Continuing for the third year now, RevHeather will be leading a service inspired by a Hartford Stage production. This fall that production is the world premiere of "Make Believe," "Bess Wohl's uncanny, gently funny and touching play, set in the 1980's, which follows four young siblings as their childhood is upended by the mysterious problems of the adults in their lives and tracks how moments from our childhood resonate with us forever." The September 23 service at USH will be inspired by this play. We've received a discount code from HartfordStage: UNITARIAN20 for 20% off all shows Sept 6-30, all seats except the SuperSaver seats that are already only $25. Find out more and get your tickets, here: <https://www.hartfordstage.org/make-believe>.
