RE News You Can Use: Rayla D. Mattson, Director of Religious Education

The nursery will be available this week during the morning worship hour. There will be a Time For All Ages followed by age appropriate classes.

Our Director of Religious Education is still in much need of additional teachers and assistants for the remaining 2020 church year. We need your help in the following grade levels: Prek-2nd, 3rd-5th and 6th-

8th. I am still in need of at least 2 more teachers for each grade level. I promise I won't call on you more than once every 4-6 weeks! We have a great group of teachers to work with and I provide everything you need each week. We just need your love and enthusiasm.

Please contact Rayla D. Mattson for more information at dre@ushartford.com or 860-233-9897 ext 104. Thank you! --Rayla

The Traveling Chalice

I'd like to thank everyone who has shown interest and excitement around our traveling chalice. It is with our first family and I'm excited to hear more about it! Please let me know if you'd like to be next!

As a reminder, I am asking families to take the chalice for a week or two to their home; decide how many days during that time you will engage as a family in developing your own spiritual practice. There is a book of reflections to help you get started and reminders of our UU Principles. I am hoping this will lead to deeper conversations within our community on how we can more fully live into our principles on a daily basis.

Offering this gift to you all with my love~

UUA General Assembly June 24-28, 2020

Our national annual denominational conference, General Assembly (GA), is wonderfully close by this year, in Providence, Rhode Island, June 24-28. Please consider if you might attend! Ask anyone who has attended a GA as there is nothing quite like it. It can be incredibly energizing to be around thousands of UU's from across the country, continent, and beyond. Especially in this pivotal national election year, nourish your spirit by worshipping, organizing, connecting, rallying, and engaging with your Unitarian Universalist community. Full details are here:

<https://www.uua.org/ga>

The Unitarian Society of Hartford is able to provide some financial support for attending GA on a limited basis. We especially encourage youth and young adults to attend! If you are a youth or a parent of a youth, please let Rayla Mattson know if you/your youth is interested and able to attend. Please let Board Treasurer Phil Gardner know if you are interested in attending GA and in need of financial assistance. Anyone who wishes may attend GA. As a congregation, we will have 5 members attend GA as delegates who vote on behalf of our congregation on matters of denominational business and significance. If you are interested in serving as a delegate to GA 2020, please let Rev. Heather (as well as the above folks as well, if relevant) know. The Early Bird Registration deadline is March 15th!

Letter of Introduction from Dianne Daniels

(USH Intern Minister, January 2020 - December 2021, half-time) I'm writing this letter to introduce myself to all of you and to give you some additional information on who I am. I look forward to working with and getting to know all of you.

Unitarian Universalism came into my life after my family and I left the denomination that my husband had grown up in – the Fire Baptized Holiness Church of God of the Americas. There were some wonderful people and families there, but one too many experiences with “Do as I say, not as I do” expressions of authority from the leadership was enough for us. My family was “unchurched” for a couple of years until an elder from our community invited us to a Kwanzaa ceremony at the Unitarian Universalist Church of Norwich, CT. The people were so warm and welcoming, and even better, they were not opposed to answering questions about the Unitarian Universalist (UU) Church, the faith, or their part in it. Our second experience was being invited to a Community Meal. The doors of the church were thrown open and whoever was outside was brought in and fed. Good, stick-to-the-ribs kind of food, nothing fancy, and the church members were sprinkled throughout the hall, sitting with the community residents who attended. It didn't matter where in the community they had come from – parents with children of varying ages, elders and young adults – they were all welcomed. They simply showed up, got fed, and experienced the warmth of community UU-style.

The Village for Families & Children

Our neighbors and friends next door at The Village for Families and Children have three residential facilities at their snow-covered main campus at 1680 Albany Ave.

Eagle House is for children ages 6-12 who are transitioning from Psychiatric Hospitals. Eagle House serves as a step down and helps prepare these children for community based treatment and a family or foster care. The Intensive Community Program is for children ages 12-17 and provides multi level treatment for teens with complex psychological problems needing residential care. The goal of the Intensive Community Program is to help build a bridge between intensive treatment and family settings or independent living. SFit is a 14 day short term crisis stabilization program for children who are in a traumatic situation. As you look outside at our neighbors at The Village, remember that we share common goals and values, as well as snow.

UU the VOTE

<https://www.uua.org/justice/vote2020>

"The church must be reminded that it is not the master or the servant of the state, but rather the conscience of the state. It must be the guide and the critic of the state, and never its tool. If the church does not recapture its prophetic zeal, it will become an irrelevant social club without moral or spiritual authority."

USH Choir is back on with new 2020 rehearsal time

Please Join us!

The USH Choir is back on for the Spring with a new rehearsal day and time. The choir will meet every Wednesday from 7:00pm– 8:30pm starting today, January 29th. This Spring, the Choir will be tackling music from choral composers of the past and present:

performing older works from composers such as Palestrina, Purcell and William Billings, as well as more contemporary works from composers like Elaine Hagenberg, Jessica Rudman and Bill Withers.

Music Sunday this year will feature the music of Romantic composer Fanny Hensel; Hensel was the sister of composer Felix Mendelsohn and, although lesser known during her lifetime, was a fabulous composer in her own right. This Music Sunday will be the USH music program's second consecutive collaboration with the music program at the Universalist Church of West Hartford. The program will be presented during worship at USH on March 15, 2020.

We hope that some of you will consider joining the Choir this semester, or even just try it out for a little while! We are in particular need of lower voices (tenor and bass ranges) but all are always welcome! If you have any questions about the Choir you can e-mail Director of Music Ministries Sam Moffett at smoffett@ushartford.com or call them at 860-371-8880.

Programs:

New Program! Despair & Empowerment Circle: Nourishing Our Spirits to Face the Climate Crisis.

The deepening climate crisis can cause many of us to fall into denial and despair. Yet our grief, anger and fear are healthy responses to the harsh realities of our time. The pain we feel for the world is not meant to be borne privately and alone because we are an integral part of the world. We gather in circle to recover, refresh, and renew ourselves as environmental and social suffering spreads. We will honor our natural responses to the climate crisis through the revolutionary practice of the Work That Reconnects. We heal feelings of powerlessness so that we may think more clearly, act more boldly, and love more deeply as we move forward.

Meets: 6:30-8:00pm, 1st Thursday of the month (Feb-June). Exception: Wednesday 4/1. The first 15 minutes will be a warm-up with movement, meditation and music. No pre-registration required - come for one, some or all sessions. Not an organizing or activism group. $2-5 sliding scale for each session.

Facilitator: Lisa Galinski, lisa.galinski@gmail.com, 860-518-0197.

Disability Support Group: Beginning on Saturday, February 1, 2020, and continuing on the first Saturday of each succeeding month, USH will hold a Disability Support Group at 10 AM-11:30 AM in the room "David's Den." This group will be a chance for participants to discuss the challenges of physical disability (chronic illness, chronic pain, impaired senses, impaired mobility) and emotional pain (loss, mental illness) and the stresses of care-taking a loved one. All are welcome and what is said in the room stays in the room. Contact Bill LaPorte-Bryan for more information at (860) 308-2688 or email at b37bryan@gmail.com.

USH Artists' Group: Mondays at 6:30 PM; Sensing a call to be creative? To write or paint, to collage or sketch, to weave or quilt? Whatever your medium, the USH Artists' Group invites you to join us at future meetings! The group is using the book Wild Ideas: Creativity from the Inside Out by Cathy Wild as the stimulus for ongoing discussions. You can purchase the book on Amazon and bring it with you. All who are interested in exploring and nurturing their creative process are welcome to join these Monday evening gatherings. No need to pre-register - just come. For more information contact Marye Gail Harrison (maryegailh@gmail.com).

Emei Qigong Cultivation: Tuesdays at 11:00 AM and Wednesdays at 5:00 PM. Contact Diana Heymann: 860-200-8525.

Tai Chi Gigong: Wednesdays, 5:30 – 6:30 PM. Contact facilitator before attending: Stephen "Lucky" Luckingham: 860-202-3404 or stephen.luckingham\(at\)gmail.comgmail.com).

Authentic Connection & Communication: An NVC Practice Group, Wednesdays, 7:15 – 9:15 PM. Contact Mark Friedman for more information: drmarkafriedman@drmarkafriedman.com.

Meeting House Sing-A-Long: All Are Welcome: Meets on the 2nd Saturday of each month, in Emerson/Meditation room (or Memorial Garden if weather / memorial service permits.) For more information contact Ed Savage: Esavage15@att.net.

Ballroom Dance: Thursdays, 6:00 – 7:45 PM. Contact Ron Friedman: 860-523-1105 or rsfriedman41\(at\)gmail.comgmail.com).

USH Book Club: Meets the second Thursday of the month September-June. Off-site, contact Richard Groothuis for more information: rgroopofus@icloud.com or 860-748-3532. Books are selected by Members to raise social and life issues. We meet monthly with the objective to discuss the books as literature but with particular emphasis on how the issues relate to us personally and as UUs. Our discussions follow the Small Group goals of seeking input from all in attendance. Our hope is that those attending will make an effort to make as many meetings as possible.

Membership is open to all. Meetings are on the second Thursday of the month at 2:30 pm.

Faith Forward Inquirer Series

Interested in learning more about the Unitarian Society of Hartford or thinking of becoming a USH member? Registration is now open for the Faith Forward Inquirer Series, a curriculum for adults composed of nine individual modules covering various aspects of our faith, congregational life, services, and opportunities available to USH members. Individuals considering membership are kindly asked to participate in the first three modules; you do not have to enroll in all nine. All modules will be offered after service on Sundays between February 9 and April 5 from 12:00-1:00pm and will meet in the Library. A full list of dates and topic are available on the registration website: <https://doodle.com/poll/mgh5yzmyisxsq8zw>. Please see Nicole DeRonck, Carolyn Carlson or Brian Harvey for more details.

Art in the Ambulatory

Retiring director of the USH ambulatory art program, Sara Sturges, has turned the program over to Diane Cadrain, who has organized a meeting for anyone who would like to brainstorm about the art displays that typically hang in the ambulatory (the circular hallway that encompasses our sanctuary). What would you like to see, and how can you help make that happen? Come bring your ideas to Servetus, directly after the service, on Sunday, February 2nd. Contact Diane Cadrain for more details.

Dinner and a Movie
Before
Sunrise
(1995)

"The combination of optimism, tragedy, and the fuzzy warmth of new love is absolutely flawless."
"...a bittersweet celebration of romantic frisson - the notion that our most precious moments of connection are often the fleeting ones"

At the Sundance Festival 25 years ago, this innocent indie movie enchanted the audience. This continues today, even in the smart phone era. Starring Ethan Hawke and Julie Delpy, it is the story of two young people who "meet cute" on a train and impulsively decide to get off in Vienna, spending a day together, talking and laughing. You can see the trailer here <https://youtu.be/9v6X-Dytlko>.

On Friday, Valentine's Day, February 14, the Dinner & Movie series will feature this PG-rated film. We will gather at 5:30 PM for popcorn and socializing, enjoy pizza and salad at 6, view the movie at 7 with optional conversation following.

To reserve ($10 each), please leave a voice message at 860-693-4269 (no texting) with your name and phone number, number of reservations, and choice(s) of meat or vegetable pizza topping. Please reserve by noon on Wednesday, February 12th.

You can pay with cash or check at the event. The Board has recently added a small fee to cover facility operating costs; more information is available through the USH website and at the event.

If on the day of the movie you find you cannot attend, please call the number above so the pizza order can be adjusted. If the event needs to be cancelled, you will be notified by noon on Friday, Feb 14. Questions? Call 860-693-4269.

DINNER & MOVIE SERIES - YOUR INPUT REQUESTED!

Are you a movie aficionado? Are you aware of our USH Dinner & Movie Series? It has met monthly for over two decades, on a Friday evening with a meal of pizza and salad followed by film and optional conversation. The conversations are generally spirited and lively.

However, reservations have been minimal lately, and several evenings have been cancelled. So, we are looking for suggestions to enhance or alter the evenings, to increase attendance! If you would like to offer your ideas, regardless of your past participation, please email: pickmovies@ushartford.com. Thanks for your help!

Belle of the Fall

Belle of the Fall is Tracy Walton and Julia Autumn Ford, An indie folk rock pop alternative americana duo from Northwest CT. Belle of the Fall met when Tracy produced Julia's debut solo album in 2014 at his studio; On Deck Sound Studio. They spent the better part of the next year touring together as solo artists. Eventually they began to play on each others sets and sing harmonies together. In July of 2015 after wrestling with the idea of remaining separate solo artists or committing to a duo they merged forces and became Belle of the Fall. In April 2016, Belle of the Fall released their debut album; "Earthbound" following it up in April 2018 with their second album: "Rise Up". Currently they are working on the third BOTF album and plan on releasing it in Spring 2019.

Save These Dates - Coming Up:

Friday, Feb 28, 2020 Belle of the Fall lead singer, Julia Autumn Ford possesses the voice of an angel. Soft, tender and raw all at once: Julia's vocal delivery is light as a feather yet powerful enough to knock down an entire city block with one turn of a phrase. Her partner in crime, bassist Tracy Walton, rounds out Belle of the Fall's folky yet modern sound.

Friday, March 27, 2020 Seán Heely Celtic trio Experience the magic music of Scotland and Ireland with the Seán Heely Celtic Trio. The group features U.S National Scottish Fiddle champion Seán Heely, acclaimed multi-instrumentalist Kevin Elam, and Highland bagpiper Tracy Jenkins. The three gents bring together multiple different instruments to perform fiery dance tunes and ancient, soaring melodies from Scotland and Ireland. They perform original compositions and have rich vocal harmonies in their solid song repertoire that features ballads, sea shanties, and songs in Irish and Scots Gaelic.

Friday, April 17, 2020 Scott Cook has managed to distill the stories collected over eleven years touring across Canada, the USA, Europe, Asia, Australia and elsewhere into straight-talking, keenly observant verse. Road-worn, painfully honest, and deeply human, his tunes weave threads of folk, roots, blues, soul and country over spacious fingerstyle guitar and clawhammer banjo arrangements.

Peace – as we come to the close of the USH-Enews week.

Be kind to others – and to yourself.

Our Unitarian Universalist Principles: The member congregations of the Unitarian Universalist Association covenant to affirm and promote: the inherent worth and dignity of every person; justice, equity, and compassion in human relations; acceptance of one another and encouragement to spiritual growth in our congregations; a free and responsible search for truth and meaning; the right of conscience and the use of the democratic process, within our congregations and in society at large; the goal of world community with peace, liberty, and justice for all; respect for the interdependent web of all existence, of which we are a part.
