celebration!

It is our pleasure to announce that USH member Margalie Belizaire will be ordained into the Unitarian Universalist Ministry in our sanctuary on Saturday, May 30 at 3 pm with a reception to follow at 4:30pm in Fellowship Hall.

The Ordination Planning Committee has members from USH and the Unitarian Church of Westport where Margalie is completing her intern ministry. Our Co-Ministers, Gloria Francesca Mengual, and Sue Smolski are representing USH on this committee. Save the date and plan to join in the

Overnight Hospitality Needed

The planning has begun! There will be out of state guests of Margalie Belizaire for her Ordination on Saturday, May 30. Please let Sue Smolski, the USH contact person on the Ordination Planning Committee, know if it is possible for you to host an overnight guest in your home.

Please call Sue at 860-280-7250. Thank You.

USH Circle Dinners

Friday, Saturday or Sunday from March 13th - March 28th

In the spirit of getting to know each other and building community, the USH Board is sponsoring Circle Dinners during the last 3 weekends in March. In addition to dinners there is a brunch or two, and afternoon receptions to choose from.

The Circle Dinners will be held before this year's stewardship drive but are purely social affairs - there will be no stewardship discussion or solicitation.

In the spirit of a community meal, most dinners are planned so that participants bring a side item, dessert or drink for up to 6 people. Our purpose is to be simple and collaborative. You'll receive more information when you provide your available dates.

Please join us and email Lisa.Galinski@gmail.com if you would like to join a circle meal. In your email, please indicate your preferred weekend(s), number of people, and if you would like to bring children. We hope everyone will choose a March Gathering to attend.

RE News You Can Use: Rayla D. Mattson, Director of Religious Education

Easter is almost here!! I will be away on Easter Sunday but with your help we can still have an amazing Easter Egg Hunt!! I am currently accepting donation of candy and prizes to fill the eggs and then prizes for the end. Donations can be dropped off outside my office at any time beginning now.

This week there will be a TFAA followed by age appropriate classes. The youth group will meet at 9:15am for soup making. There will be childcare during the morning worship service. There will also be after care for those 10 and under until 1:45am.

Our Director of Religious Education is still in much need of additional teachers and assistants for the remaining 2020 church year. We need your help in the following grade levels: Prek-2nd, 3rd-5th and 6th-8th. I am still in need of at least 2 more teachers for each grade level. I promise I won't call on you more than once every 4-6 weeks! We have a great group of teachers to work with and I provide everything you need each week. We just need your love and enthusiasm.

Please contact Rayla D. Mattson for more information at dre@ushartford.com or 860-233-9897 ext 104. Thank you! --Rayla

Citizens.
January 2020

Good Afternoon Youth Group! I wanted to send out a message with some information about upcoming field trips. First, we are CONFIRMED to visit Church Street Eats in downtown Hartford on March 1st. We will send out information as we get closer, but the plan will be to meet at the church first and to drive over to the soup kitchen as a group. I believe we are supposed to be at the soup kitchen by 10am. We are also planning a separate field trip over the next two weeks to go see the movie Just Mercy. Once we have the details, we will share the date and time. We are planning to meet soon to plan out other field trips for the next few months. Thank You, Rayla Mattson, DRE.

UUA General Assembly June 24-28, 2020

Our national denominational conference, General Assembly (GA), is wonderfully close by this year, in Providence, Rhode Island, June 24-28. Please consider if you might attend! Ask anyone who has attended a GA as there is nothing quite like it. It can be incredibly energizing to be around thousands of UU's from across the country, continent, and beyond. Especially in this pivotal national election year, nourish your spirit by worshipping, organizing, connecting, rallying, and engaging with your Unitarian Universalist community. Full details are here:

<https://www.uua.org/ga>

The Unitarian Society of Hartford is able to provide some financial support for attending GA on a limited basis. We especially encourage youth and young adults to attend! If you are a youth or a parent of a youth, please let Rayla Mattson know if you/your youth is interested and able to attend. Please let Board Treasurer Phil Gardner know if you are interested in attending GA and in need of financial assistance. Anyone who wishes may attend GA. As a congregation, we will have 5 members attend GA as delegates who vote on behalf of our congregation on matters of denominational business and significance. If you are interested in serving as a delegate to GA 2020, please let Rev. Heather (as well as the above folks as well, if relevant) know. The Early Bird Registration deadline is March 15th!

Letter of Introduction from Dianne Daniels

(USH Intern Minister, January 2020 - December 2021, half-time)

I'm writing this letter to introduce myself to all of you and to give you some additional information on who I am. I look forward to working with and getting to know all of you.

Unitarian Universalism came into my life after my family and I left the denomination that my husband had grown up in – the Fire Baptized Holiness Church of God of the Americas. There were some wonderful people and families there, but one too many experiences with “Do as I say, not as I do” expressions of authority from the leadership was enough for us. My family was “unchurched” for a couple of years until an elder from our community invited us to a Kwanzaa ceremony at the Unitarian Universalist Church of Norwich, CT. The people were so warm and welcoming, and even better, they were not opposed to answering questions about the Unitarian Universalist (UU) Church, the faith, or their part in it.

Staff News

Please see our Office Administrator, Buffie Pinney, with any administrative questions or concerns. Buffie will be here at USH through at least June 2020. Office hours are now Sunday through Thursday, (only occasional Mondays) from 9am-1pm. Buffie's always happy to hear from you!

News from the USH Board of Directors

Greetings from the Board:

As always, our members and friends keep us going strong. If you would like to be more active and involved in any aspect of congregational life, please contact one of our Ministers or any Board member today.

~Joe Rubin, USH Board President

From the Nominating Committee:

Should you, or someone you know, get involved in the governance and leadership of USH through Board service? Over the next six weeks, the Nominating Committee will be considering candidates to fill several open positions on the USH Board of Directors—open because some terms expire on June 30. A slate of candidates will be presented for a congregational vote at the May Annual Meeting.

To hear more, talk with a Nominating Committee member: Marie Basche, Adam Brown, Dana Donovan, Makenzie Hurtado or Sherry Manetta (committee chair), or with current president Joe Rubin, or president elect Martha Bradley. Explore the opportunities!

ACTION

Thursday, March
12th, 7 PM Sharp
Union Baptist Church, 1921

Main Street, Hartford PLEASE ARRIVE BY 6:30 PM

Background on GHIAA's Campaigns

1. GHIAA is seeking to pass clean slate legislation which would automatically expunge the criminal records of returning citizens who do not return to crime 3 years after misdemeanors and 5 years after non-violent felonies.
2. GHIAA is seeking to pass legislation that would repeal "welfare liens." A welfare lien is a lien the state places on a low income person receiving various forms of state assistance, demanding repayment when the person sells or refinances a home (many years later), receives a legal settlement (i.e. personal injury), receives any inheritance, or dies and attempts to leave any inheritance to their heirs. Connecticut is one of two states in the country that does this to its residents.

To register for this event visit: <https://ghiaamarch.eventbrite.com>

Role of Core Teams: Each GHIAA congregation is asked to turn out a minimum of 10 people to this action. Please identify the number of people your congregation will turn out and email that number to ghiaa@cljct.org or call/text Cori Mackey at 860-810-9736.

This will be a public GHIAA meeting where we update legislators on these campaigns and seek public commitments to support GHIAA's positions.

UU the VOTE

<https://www.uua.org/justice/vote2020>

"The church must be reminded that it is not the master or the servant of the state, but rather the conscience of the state. It must be the guide and the critic of the state, and never its tool. If the church does not recapture its prophetic zeal, it will become an irrelevant social club without moral or spiritual authority."

A Quiet Call for Justice: Standing Up for the Disability Community

On MARCH 2, 2020, members of the disability and faith communities will come together to remember disabled victims of crime including filicide (those killed by family members or caregivers), police shootings nearly half of those killed by police have a disability) and insurance rationing (caps on or withholding of life sustaining medicine or equipment). We renew our call for justice, renew our call to eliminate ableism and send a message that disabled people are as valued as able-bodied people.

What: A Quiet Call for Justice

When: March 2, 2020 from 6-8 PM

Where: Hartford Seminary, 77 Sherman Street, Hartford, CT

Event Leaders are Rev. Donna Manocchio, United Church of Christ Minister, Kathy Flaherty, Executive Director, CT Legal Rights Project, Doris Maldonado, Co-Chair, Keep the Promise, and Candace Low, Consulting Services.

A Quiet Call for Justice is an opportunity to remember the victims, to grieve, to discuss the issues and underlying causes, to learn how we can talk about them and how we can prevent these crimes from continuing. We will discuss strategies for changing the patterns that keep repeating and strategies for responding to local incidents.

Those needing accommodations in order to fully participate should contact Susan at Hartford Seminary. Register at <https://www.hartsem.edu/event/national-disability-day-of-mourning-a-quiet-call-for-justice/>. The event will be interpreted for those who use sign language. This is a scent free event.

Note: Hartford Seminary is committed to providing accessibility for all. Please contact Susan Schoenberger at sschoenberger@hartsem.edu or 860-509-9519 at least 3 days in advance if you have questions about our accessibility or need reasonable accommodations for this event.

USH Choir - Come Sing With Us!

The USH Choir is now meeting every Wednesday from 7:00pm- 8:30pm. This Spring, the Choir will be tackling music from choral composers of the past and present: performing older works from composers such as Palestrina, Purcell and William Billings, as well as more contemporary works from composers like Elaine Hagenberg, Jessica Rudman and Bill Withers.

Music Sunday this year will feature the music of Romantic composer Fanny Hensel; Hensel was the sister of composer Felix Mendelsohn and, although lesser known during her lifetime, was a fabulous composer in her own right. This Music Sunday will be the USH music program's second consecutive collaboration with the music program at the Universalist Church of West Hartford. The program will be presented during worship at USH on March 15, 2020. We hope that some of you will consider joining the Choir this semester, or even just try it out for a little while! We are in particular need of lower voices (tenor and bass ranges) but all are always welcome! If you have any questions about the Choir you can e-mail Director of Music Ministries Sam Moffett at smoffett@ushartford.com or call them at 860-371-8880.

Programs:

Despair & Empowerment Circles: Nourishing Our Spirits to Face the Climate Crisis. The deepening climate crisis can cause many of us to fall into denial and despair. Yet our grief, anger and fear are healthy responses to the harsh realities of our time. The pain we feel for the world is not meant to be borne privately and alone because we are an integral part of the world. We gather in circle to recover, refresh, and renew ourselves as environmental and social suffering spreads. We will honor our natural responses to the climate crisis through the revolutionary practice of the Work That Reconnects. We heal feelings of powerlessness so that we may think more clearly, act more boldly, and love more deeply as we move forward.

Meets: 6:30-8:00pm, 1st Thursday of the month (Feb-June). Exception: Wednesday 4/1. The first 15 minutes will be a warm-up with movement, meditation and music. No pre-registration required - come for one, some or all sessions. Not an organizing or activism group. $2-5 sliding scale for each session.

Facilitator: Lisa Galinski, lisa.galinski@gmail.com, 860-518-0197.

Disability Support Group: Began on Saturday, February 1, 2020, and continuing on the first Saturday of each succeeding month, USH is holding a Disability Support Group at 10 AM-11:30 AM in the room "David's Den." The next meeting of the group will be on Saturday, March 7th. This group is a chance for participants to discuss the challenges of physical disability (chronic illness, chronic pain, impaired senses, impaired mobility) and emotional pain (loss, mental illness) and the stresses of care-taking a loved one. All are welcome and what is said in the room stays in the room. Contact Bill LaPorte-Bryan for more information at (860) 308-2688 or email at b37bryan@gmail.com.

USH Artists' Group: Mondays at 6:30 PM; Sensing a call to be creative? To write or paint, to collage or sketch, to weave or quilt? Whatever your medium, the USH Artists' Group invites you to join us at future meetings! The group is using the book Wild Ideas: Creativity from the Inside Out by Cathy Wild as the stimulus for ongoing discussions. You can purchase the book on Amazon and bring it with you. All who are interested in exploring and nurturing their creative process are welcome to join these Monday evening gatherings. No need to pre-register - just come. For more information contact Marye Gail Harrison maryegailh@gmail.com.

Emei Qigong Cultivation: Tuesdays at 11:00 AM and Wednesdays at 5:00 PM. Contact Diana Heymann: 860-200-8525.

Authentic Connection & Communication: An NVC Practice Group, Wednesdays, 7:15 – 9:15 PM. Contact Mark Friedman for more information: drmarkafriedman@drmarkafriedman.com.

Meeting House Sing-A-Long: All Are Welcome: Meets on the 2nd Saturday of each month, in Emerson/Meditation room (or Memorial Garden if weather / memorial service permits.) For more information contact Ed Savage: Esavage15@att.net.

Ballroom Dance: Thursdays, 6:00 – 7:45 PM. Contact Ron Friedman: 860-523-1105 or rsfriedman41\(at\)gmail.comgmail.com).

USH Book Club: Meets the second Thursday of the month September-June. Off-site, contact Richard Groothuis for more information: rgroopofus@icloud.com or 860-748-3532. Books are selected by Members to raise social and life issues. We meet monthly with the objective to discuss the books as literature but with particular emphasis on how the issues relate to us personally and as UUs. Our discussions follow the Small Group goals of seeking input from all in attendance. Our hope is that those attending will make an effort to make as many meetings as possible.

Membership is open to all. Meetings are on the second Thursday of the month at 2:30 pm.

Faith Forward Inquirer Series

Interested in learning more about the Unitarian Society of Hartford or thinking of becoming a USH member? Registration is open for the Faith Forward Inquirer Series, a curriculum for adults composed of nine individual modules covering various aspects of our faith, congregational life, services, and opportunities available to USH members. Individuals considering membership are kindly asked to participate in the first three modules; you do not have to enroll in all nine. All modules will be offered after service on Sundays from February 9th through April 5th from 12:00-1:00pm and will meet in the Library. A full list of dates and topic are available on the registration website: <https://doodle.com/poll/mgh5yzmyisxsq8zw>.

Please see Nicole DeRonck, Carolyn Carlson or Brian Harvey for more details.

Art in the Ambulatory

Retiring director of the USH ambulatory art program, Sara Sturges, has turned the program over to Diane Cadrain. This concerns the art displays that typically hang in the ambulatory (the circular hallway that encompasses our sanctuary). What would you like to see, and how can you help make that happen?

Please be sure to take a moment and view the work of our first member artist, Miriam Byroade, on and around the Sanctuary!!

Contact Diane Cadrain for more details.

DINNER & MOVIE SERIES - YOUR INPUT REQUESTED!

Are you a movie aficionado? Are you aware of our USH Dinner & Movie Series? It has met monthly for over two decades, on a Friday evening with a meal of pizza and salad followed by film and optional conversation. The conversations are generally spirited and lively.

However, reservations have been minimal lately, and several evenings have been cancelled. So, we are looking for suggestions to enhance or alter the evenings, to increase attendance! If you would like to offer your ideas, regardless of your past participation, please email:

pickmovies@ushartford.com. Thanks for your help!

Connection Circles (formerly known as Small Group Ministries)

New Connection Circle to begin February 19th

A Connection Circle is an opportunity for USH members and friends to get to know each other better over eight, 2 hour, once-weekly small group meetings led by a trained facilitator. This group will meet on Wednesday evenings from 7-9pm in the Hartford home of Judith Hopkins. Each group is limited to 10 people, so sign up early. If you are interested in joining, sign up after service in Fellowship Hall, or call/text/email Martha Bradley, 860-305-3307 or marthabradley49@yahoo.com. If you are interested in Connection Circles, but can't make this day or time, please let Martha know, and we will try to schedule another group.

Please text or email Martha Bradley at 860-305-3307, marthabradley49@yahoo.com for more information or click HERE.

Belle of the Fall
Belle of the Fall is Tracy Walton and Julia Autumn Ford, an indie folk rock pop alternative americana duo from Northwest CT. Belle of the Fall met when Tracy produced Julia's debut solo album in 2014 at his studio: On Deck Sound Studio. They spent the better part of the next year touring together as solo artists. Eventually they began to play on each others' sets and sing harmonies together. In July of 2015 after wrestling with the idea of remaining separate solo artists or committing to a duo they merged forces and became Belle of the Fall. In April 2016, Belle of the Fall released their debut album, "Earthbound," following it up in April 2018 with their second album: "Rise Up". Currently they are working on the third BOTF album.

Fun Facts:

2017 Critics Choice Award recipient: Richmond International Film and Music Festival.

Belle of the Fall has a partnership with Taylor Guitars.

In 2016 Belle of the Fall toured to SXSW to showcase with Telefunken Microphones.

Belle of the Fall has been described as a modern day Simon and Garfunkel if Garfunkel was female and the shorter of the two.

Save These Dates - Coming Up:

Friday, Feb 28, 2020 Belle of the Fall lead singer, Julia Autumn Ford possesses the voice of an angel. Soft, tender and raw all at once: Julia's vocal delivery is light as a feather yet powerful enough to knock down an entire city block with one turn of a phrase. Her partner in crime, bassist Tracy Walton, rounds out Belle of the Fall's folky yet modern sound.

Friday, March 27, 2020 Seán Heely Celtic trio Experience the magic music of Scotland and Ireland with the Seán Heely Celtic Trio. The group features U.S National Scottish Fiddle champion Seán Heely, acclaimed multi-instrumentalist Kevin Elam, and Highland bagpiper Tracy Jenkins. The three gents bring together multiple different instruments to perform fiery dance tunes and ancient, soaring melodies from Scotland and Ireland. They perform original compositions and have rich vocal harmonies in their solid song repertoire that features ballads, sea shanties, and songs in Irish and Scots Gaelic.

Friday, April 17, 2020 Scott Cook has managed to distill the stories collected over eleven years touring across Canada, the USA, Europe, Asia, Australia and elsewhere into straight-talking, keenly observant verse. Road-worn, painfully honest, and deeply human, his tunes weave threads of folk, roots, blues, soul and country over spacious fingerstyle guitar and clawhammer banjo arrangements.

The Traveling Chalice

I'd like to thank everyone who has shown interest and excitement around our traveling chalice. It is with our first family and I'm excited to hear more about it! Please let me know if you'd like to be next! As a reminder, I am asking families to take the chalice for a week or two to their home; decide how many days during that time you will engage as a family in developing your own spiritual practice. There is a book of reflections to help you get started and reminders of our UU Principles. I am hoping this will lead to deeper conversations within our community on how we can more fully live into our principles on a daily basis. Offering this gift to you all

Upcoming Special Events and News in the Larger Community

Greetings from the Florence Griswold Museum

Greetings and Happy New Year from the Florence Griswold Museum! In the spirit of our current exhibition "Nothing More American: Immigration, Sanctuary, and Community", we are excited to offer a new community partnership to you! For one Sunday each month we are inviting members of local community organizations to visit the Museum, completely free of charge! We encourage you, family, and friends to please join us. Visitors will be able to enjoy all we have to offer: the art exhibition, the historic Florence Griswold House, and our beautiful riverfront grounds and gardens. We will also offer a fun hands-on craft project, and a light reception of snacks. "Nothing More American" is an exhibition of contemporary photographs by New York-based artist Matthew Leifheit that tells the story of immigrant and refugee families resettled in Connecticut communities. The exhibition was inspired by a story in The

New Yorker highlighting the efforts by the First Congregational Church of Old Lyme to offer sanctuary to one immigrant family in 2018. Leifheit's portraits honor the struggles and strength of these families and the bonds of friendship formed in their new communities. All you need to do to take advantage of this offer is visit our Front Desk staff in the main lobby of the Museum. They will direct you to our community check-in area on these special days:

The dates will be:

March 1st (1-5 PM)
April 5th (10 AM-5 PM)
May 3rd (10 AM-5 PM)

We hope this exhibit and these stories will inspire and move you. Some of you may know these families personally or many more just like them and understand how this story will resonate. We can't wait to share what we have to offer with you in this new partnership. If you have any questions please reach out to our Marketing Department at emily@flogris.org or tammi@flogris.org.

The Florence Griswold Museum looks forward to seeing you soon.

St. John's Church

Simon Johnson is one of the most versatile musicians of his generation, successfully combining life as a virtuoso organist with extensive work in choral direction, composition and arrangement. As the Organist and Assistant Director of Music at St Paul's Cathedral (London), he has been involved in all the national occasions that have taken place there since his appointment in 2008, including the funeral service of Baroness Thatcher, the Diamond Jubilee of Her Majesty the Queen and Her Majesty's 90th Birthday celebrations, for which he also arranged some of the music.

This concert is at West Hartford's St. John's Episcopal church on February 21st at 7:30pm, free admission, no tickets required.

Suggested donation: $20, checks payable to Music at the Red Door. A reception follows in the church hall. This concert is co-sponsored by the Greater Hartford Chapter, American Guild of Organists. See info: <https://www.reddoormusic.org/event/simon-johnson-organist/>.

Lost and Found

If anyone finds a toy mouse dressed as Santa please give it to Buffie! Its "owner" misses it dreadfully so!

I will be donating the lost and found items to a local Goodwill or Salvation Army at the end of every month so please come and visit my container of articles!

Thank You~ Buffie, Office

When the Meeting House Loses Electric Power

Please note that when there is a power outage NO water or sewer services should be used. This will cause a flood in Fellowship Hall.

Please refer questions or concerns to Buffie, Office Admin.

Thank You for your cooperation during such events.

The deadline for USH-Enews submissions is Tuesday at 12 Noon.
Email to: ushenews@ushartford.com OR hartforduusociety@gmail.com
Please note in the subject line "USH-Enews." Thank you for your submission!

Peace – as we come to the close of the USH-Enews week.
Be kind to others – and to yourself.

Our Unitarian Universalist Principles: The member congregations of the Unitarian Universalist Association covenant to affirm and promote: the inherent worth and dignity of every person; justice, equity, and compassion in human relations; acceptance of one another and encouragement to spiritual growth in our congregations; a free and responsible search for truth and meaning; the right of conscience and the use of the democratic process, within our congregations and in society at large; the goal of world community with peace, liberty, and justice for all; respect for the interdependent web of all existence, of which we are a part.
