Memorial Service for Richard "Dick"
Edwards

There will be a Celebration of Life service for Richard "Dick" Edwards on Sunday, March 8, 2020 at 12:00 noon, following the Sunday service. Mr. Edwards was a long-time member of USH. He served in the U.S. Army during the Korean War and achieved the rank of Sergeant. Upon his return, he earned a Bachelor's degree in Business Administration. He worked for The Spencer Turbine Company for 24 years, becoming their Treasurer. His community activities, generous heart, love of history and genealogy made him a role model for his children, grandchildren, and great-grandchildren. Mr. Edwards' ashes will be interred in the Memorial Garden in a private ceremony following the Celebration of Life service in the Chapel. Intern Minister Dianne Daniels is officiating.

It is our pleasure to announce that USH member Margalie Belizaire will be ordained into the Unitarian Universalist Ministry here at the Meeting House on Saturday, May 30th at 3pm with a reception to follow at 4:30pm in Fellowship Hall. The Ordination Planning Committee has members from USH and the Unitarian Church in Westport where Margalie is completing her intern ministry. Our Co-Ministers, Gloria Francesca

Mengual, and Sue Smolski are representing USH on this committee. Save the date and plan to join in the celebration!

Overnight Hospitality Needed

The planning has begun! There will be out-of-state guests of Margalie Belizaire for her Ordination on Saturday, May 30. Please let Sue Smolski, the USH contact person on the Ordination Planning Committee, know if it is possible for you to host an overnight guest in your home.

Please call Sue at 860-280-7250. Thank You.

Circle Dinners starting soon! RSVP by March 7!

In the spirit of strengthening our community and connections with one another, you are invited to attend a USH Circle Dinner in March. We have wonderful hosts opening their homes every day on the weekends of March 13-15, 20-22, and 27-29 for dinners, brunches, and cocktail hours! There is a range of times to fit in your and your family's schedule -- late mornings, afternoons and evenings. Once you sign up and indicate your preferred dates, you will be matched with a host and will receive an email confirmation in early March with the date, address, and what you can bring to contribute to the meal (if you selected that option on the sign-up form). The Board is sponsoring the Circle Dinners in advance of this year's stewardship drive, but there will be no stewardship discussion or solicitation at the Circle Dinners this year - they are purely social events to strengthen connections in our community. We look forward to seeing you at a Circle Dinner soon! Please RSVP as soon as possible, if you haven't already. Feel free to email me with any questions. To see Circle Dinner dates and locations, and to RSVP: Please click HERE to access the sign up form.

RE News You Can Use: Rayla D. Mattson, Director of Religious Education

Easter is almost here!! I will be away on Easter Sunday, April 12th, but with your help we can still have an amazing Easter Egg Hunt!! I am currently accepting donations of candy and prizes to fill the eggs and then prizes for the end. Donations can be dropped off outside my office at any time beginning now.

This week there will be a TFAA followed by a one-room class in the Fellowship Hall. The nursery will be available for the morning worship service and then for children 10 and under until 1:45pm.

We are still in much need of additional teachers and assistants for the remaining 2020 church year. We need your help in the following grade levels: Prek-2nd, 3rd-5th and 6th-8th. I am still in need of at least 2 more teachers for each grade level. I promise I won't call on you more than once every 4-6 weeks! We have a great group of teachers to work with and I provide everything you need each week. We just need your love and enthusiasm.

Good Afternoon Youth Group! We are planning a field trip over the next two weeks to go see the movie Just Mercy. Once we have the details, we will share the date and time. We are planning to meet soon to plan out other field trips for the next few months. Thank You, Rayla Mattson, DRE.

UUA General Assembly June 24-28, 2020

Our national annual denominational conference, General Assembly (GA), is wonderfully close by this year, in Providence, Rhode Island, June 24-28. Please consider if you might attend! Ask anyone who has attended a GA as there is nothing quite like it. It is incredibly energizing to be around thousands of UU's from across the country, continent, and beyond. Especially in this pivotal national election year, nourish your spirit by worshipping, organizing, connecting, rallying, and engaging with your Unitarian Universalist community. Full details are here: <https://www.uua.org/ga>.

The Unitarian Society of Hartford is able to provide some financial support for attending GA on a limited basis. We especially encourage youth and young adults to attend! If you are a youth or a parent of a youth, please let Rayla Mattson know if you/your youth is interested and able to attend. Anyone who wishes may attend GA. As a congregation, we will have 5 members attend GA as delegates who vote on behalf of our congregation on matters of denominational business and significance. If you are interested in serving as a delegate to GA 2020, please let Rev. Heather (as well as the above folks as well, if relevant) know. Contact either Carolyn Carlson carlsoncjc@gmail.com or Buffie at hartforduusociety@gmail.com for an application. The Early Bird Registration (less expensive) deadline is March 15. Click HERE for more GA info.

From the USH Caring Network: Please inform the Caring Network of needs, or volunteer your services. If you know of any member experiencing some difficulty, please contact Eve Pech or any member of the Caring Network so we can provide some assistance. A wide range of community services is also available to those in need by calling the Community Info Line at 211.

Staff News

Please see our Office Administrator, Buffie Pinney, with any administrative questions or concerns. Buffie will be here at USH through at least June 2020. Office hours are now Sunday through Thursday, (only occasional Mondays) from 9am-1pm.
Buffie's always happy to hear from you!

Letter of Introduction from Dianne Daniels

(USH Intern Minister, January 2020 - December 2021, half-time)

I'm writing this letter to introduce myself to all of you and to give you some additional information on who I am. I look forward to working with and getting to know all of you.

Unitarian Universalism came into my life after my family and I left the denomination that my husband had grown up in – the Fire Baptized Holiness Church of God of the Americas. There were some wonderful people and families there, but one too many experiences with “Do as I say, not as I do” expressions of authority from the leadership was enough for us. My family was “unchurched” for a couple of years until an elder from our community invited us to a Kwanzaa ceremony at the Unitarian Universalist Church of Norwich, CT. The people were so warm and welcoming, and even better, they were not opposed to answering questions about the Unitarian Universalist (UU) Church, the faith, or their part in it.

GHIAA ACTIONThursday, March

Union Baptist Church, 1921
Main Street,PLEASE ARRIVE BY 6:30 PM*Background on GHIAA's Campaigns

1. GHIAA is seeking to pass clean slate legislation which would automatically expunge the criminal records of returning citizens who do not return to crime 3 years after misdemeanors and 5 years after non-violent felonies.

2. GHIAA is seeking to pass legislation that would repeal “welfare liens.” A welfare lien is a lien the state places on a low income person receiving various forms of state assistance, demanding repayment when the person sells or refinances a home (many years later), receives a legal settlement (i.e. personal injury), receives any inheritance, or dies and attempts to leave any inheritance to their heirs. Connecticut is one of two states in the country that does this to its residents.

To register for this event visit: <https://ghiaamarch.eventbrite.com>

Role of Core Teams: Each GHIAA congregation is asked to turn out a minimum of 10 people to this action. Please identify the number of people your congregation will turn out and email that number to ghiaa@cljct.org or call/text Cori Mackey at 860-810-9736.

This will be a public GHIAA meeting where we update legislators on these campaigns and seek public commitments to support GHIAA’s positions.

UU the VOTE

<https://www.uua.org/justice/vote2020>

"The church must be reminded that it is not the master or the servant of the state, but rather the conscience of the state. It must be the guide and the critic of the state, and never its tool. If the church does not recapture its prophetic zeal, it will become an irrelevant social club without moral or spiritual authority."

USH Choir - Come Sing With Us!

The USH Choir is now meeting every Wednesday from 7:00pm– 8:30pm. This Spring, the Choir will be tackling music from choral composers of the past and present: performing older works from composers such as Palestrina, Purcell and William Billings, as well as more contemporary works from composers like Elaine Hagenberg, Jessica Rudman and Bill Withers.

Music Sunday this year will feature the music of Romantic composer Fanny Hensel; Hensel was the sister of composer Felix Mendelsohn and, although lesser known during her lifetime, was a fabulous composer in her own right. This Music Sunday will be the USH music program's second consecutive collaboration with the music program at the Universalist Church of West Hartford. The program will be presented during worship at USH on March 15, 2020.

We hope that some of you will consider joining the Choir this semester, or even just try it out for a little while! We are in particular need of lower voices (tenor and bass ranges) but all are always welcome! If you have any questions about the Choir you can e-mail Director of Music Ministries Sam Moffett at smoffett@ushartford.com or call them at 860-371-8880.

Despair & Empowerment Circles: Nourishing Our Spirits to Face the Climate

Crisis: The deepening climate crisis can cause many of us to fall into denial and despair. Yet our grief, anger and fear are healthy responses to the harsh realities of our time. The pain we feel for the world is not meant to be borne privately and alone because we are an integral part of the world. We gather in circle to recover, refresh, and renew ourselves as environmental and social suffering spreads. We will honor our natural responses to the climate crisis through the revolutionary practice of the Work That Reconnects. We heal feelings of powerlessness so that we may think more clearly, act more boldly, and love more deeply as we move forward.

Meets: 6:30-8:00pm, 1st Thursday of the month (Feb-June). Exception: Wednesday 4/1. The first 15 minutes will be a warm-up with movement, meditation and music. No pre-registration required - come for one, some or all sessions. Not an organizing or activism group. $2-5 sliding scale for each session.

Facilitator: Lisa Galinski, lisa.galinski@gmail.com, 860-518-0197.

Disability Support Group: Began on Saturday, February 1, 2020, and continuing on the first Saturday of each succeeding month, USH is holding a Disability Support Group at 10 AM-11:30 AM in the room "David's Den." The next meeting of the group will be on Saturday, March 7th. This group is a chance for participants to discuss the challenges of physical disability (chronic illness, chronic pain, impaired senses, impaired mobility) and emotional pain (loss, mental illness) and the stresses of care-taking a loved one. All are welcome and what is said in the room stays in the room. Contact Bill LaPorte-Bryan for more information at (860) 308-2688 or email at b37bryan@gmail.com.

USH Artists' Group: Mondays at 6:30 PM; Sensing a call to be creative? To write or paint, to collage or sketch, to weave or quilt? Whatever your medium, the USH Artists' Group invites you to join us at future meetings! The group is using the book Wild Ideas: Creativity from the Inside Out by Cathy Wild as the stimulus for ongoing discussions. You can purchase the book on Amazon and bring it with you. All who are interested in exploring and nurturing their creative process are welcome to join these Monday evening gatherings. No need to pre-register - just come. Books are selected by Members to raise social and life issues. We meet monthly with the objective to discuss the books as literature but with particular emphasis on how the issues relate to us personally and as UUs. Our discussions follow the Small Group goals of seeking input from all in attendance. Our hope is that those attending will make an effort to make as many meetings as possible. Membership is open to all. Meetings are on the second Thursday of the month at 2:30 pm.

Request for Meals

Beginning March 2, Valerie Klokow will be starting a two-week radiation schedule. On March 3, she will be beginning new chemo. The side effects may be quite severe. Valerie has requested we restart the TakeThemAMeal schedule. We would like to have meals two days a week. The specific days will be indicated on the signup. Valerie is a vegetarian and loves fresh fruits. She requests only single servings of the fruit instead of large bowls. Veggies are best cooked. Xavier enjoys pasta with meat sauce, chicken, beef, pork chops, steak, potatoes, beans, rice, pizza, lasagna, and Mexican foods. Please put foods in disposable containers so Valerie will not have to return them. Best time for delivery is between 3 PM and dinnertime.

Apartment is on the second floor. Knock on the door, if there is no response, the food can be left outside the door. If you don't cook, take out-meals and GrubHub or similar cards would be welcome.

To sign-up go to TakeThemAMeal at <https://takethemameal.com>. The meal recipient is: Klokow. The User Password is: 1971

DINNER & MOVIE

"THE FAREWELL" - FRI, MARCH 13

Our Friday, March 13, feature is "The Farewell", a 2019 release starring Awkwafina, a US-raised grad student who returns with her parents to China upon learning her grandmother is dying. A "richly moving story of how family can unite and strengthen us - often in spite of ourselves."* You can see the trailer here at:

<https://youtu.be/RofpAjqwMa8>

"When each of us contains multitudes, "The Farewell" suggests, home is everywhere, or anywhere we happen to be." "It unearths the universality of complex familial love that defies borders and language barriers."*

We will gather at 5:30 PM for popcorn and socializing, enjoy pizza and salad at 6, view the PG-rated movie at 7, with optional conversation following.

To reserve ($10 each), please leave a voice message at 860-693-4269 (no texting) with your name and phone number, number of reservations, and choice(s) of meat or vegetable pizza topping. Do feel free to invite neighbors, coworkers, or outside USH friends to join you for this event. You can pay with cash or check that evening. Please reserve by noon on Wednesday, March 11th. The USH Board has determined a facility usage fee is to be paid at the event; more information is available through the USH website and at the D & M evening. If on the day of the movie you find you cannot attend, please call the number above before noon so the pizza order can be adjusted.

If the event needs to be cancelled, you will be notified by noon on Friday, March 13. If you have questions, call 860-693-4269.

Are you a movie aficionado? Are you aware of our USH Dinner & Movie Series? It has met monthly for over two decades, on a Friday evening with a meal of pizza and salad followed by film and optional conversation. The conversations are generally spirited and lively. However, reservations have been minimal lately, and several evenings have been cancelled. So, we are looking for suggestions to enhance or alter the evenings, to increase attendance! If you would like to offer your ideas, regardless of your past participation, please email: pickmovies@ushartford.com. Thanks for your help!

A special Thank You to Clara Horn for coordinating "The Book Table" these past years!

Friday, March 27, 2020 Seán Heely Celtic trio Experience the magic music of Scotland and Ireland with the Seán Heely Celtic Trio. The group features U.S National Scottish Fiddle champion Seán Heely, acclaimed multi-instrumentalist Kevin Elam, and Highland bagpiper Tracy Jenkins. The three gents bring together multiple different instruments to perform fiery dance tunes and ancient, soaring melodies from Scotland and Ireland. They perform original compositions and have rich vocal harmonies in their solid song repertoire that features ballads, sea shanties, and songs in Irish and Scots Gaelic.

Friday, April 17, 2020 Scott Cook has managed to distill the stories collected over eleven years touring across Canada, the USA, Europe, Asia, Australia and elsewhere into straight-talking, keenly observant verse. The Traveling Chalice

I'd like to thank everyone who has shown interest and excitement around our traveling chalice. It is with our first family and I'm excited to hear more about it! Please let me know if you'd like to be next! As a reminder, I am asking families to take the chalice for a week or two to their home; decide how many days during that time you will engage as a family in developing your own spiritual practice. There is a book of reflections to help you get started and reminders of our UU Principles. I am hoping this will lead to deeper conversations within our community on how we can more fully live into our principles on a daily basis. Offering this gift to you all with my love~ Rayla D. Mattson,

Art in the Ambulatory

Retiring director of the USH ambulatory art program, Sara Sturges, has turned the program over to Diane Cadrain. Please be sure to take a moment and view the work of our first member artist, Miriam Byroade, on and around the Sanctuary!!

Greetings from the Florence Griswold Museum

Greetings and Happy New Year from the Florence Griswold Museum! In the spirit of our current exhibition "Nothing More American: Immigration, Sanctuary, and Community", we are excited to offer a new community partnership to you! For one Sunday each month we are inviting members of local community organizations to visit the Museum, completely free of charge! We encourage you, family, and friends to please join us. Visitors will be able to enjoy all we have to offer: the art exhibition, the historic Florence Griswold House, and our beautiful riverfront grounds and gardens. We will also offer a fun hands-on craft project, and a light reception of snacks. "Nothing More American" is an exhibition of contemporary photographs by New York-based artist Matthew Leifheit that tells the story of immigrant and refugee families resettled in Connecticut communities. The exhibition was inspired by a story in The New Yorker highlighting the efforts by the First Congregational Church of Old Lyme to offer sanctuary to one immigrant family in 2018. Leifheit's portraits honor the struggles and strength of these families and the bonds of friendship formed in their new communities. All you need to do to take advantage of this offer is visit our Front Desk staff in the main lobby of the Museum. They will direct you to our community check-in area on these special days:

The dates will be:

April 5th (10 AM-5 PM)

May 3rd (10 AM-5 PM)

We hope this exhibit and these stories will inspire and move you. Some of you may know these families personally or many more just like them and understand how these stories resonate. We can't wait to share what we have to offer with you in this new partnership. If you have any questions please reach out to our Marketing Department at emily@flogris.org or tammi@flogris.org.

The Florence Griswold Museum looks forward to seeing you soon.
