Worship Service

August 23rd, 2020, 10:00am

"Live Like There's Work to Do"

USH is hosting worship with other CT congregations this week!

Rev. Cathy Rion Starr, Co-Minister

Carol Simpson, Worship Associate

In this time of So Very Many Decisions to manage risk as we live our pandemic lives, how do we navigate our lives with integrity and faith? RevCathy, your oh-so-deliberative minister will reflect on indecisiveness, decision fatigue, and how to orient ourselves the bigger picture of what we are called to do as individuals and faith communities. We'll have the recording on vimeo Saturday (available here) if you want to play that in your Zoom room. And/or folks can join us in our Facebook Premiere at 10am (starts at 9:45 on our USH Facebook page).

10:00am - Worship - watch as usual at www.ushartford.com, and/or via our USH Facebook Page

Fellowship Time - "Live" in Zoom room immediately following service (starting at 11:00 am). Our conversations should be especially rich as we realize that we are not just a silo in this tumultuous world, but are linked with Unitarian Universalists throughout the country. Come and be inspired! Zoom

We continue to support folks in learning how to use Zoom – email Buffie at hartforduusociety@gmail.com if you have trouble getting in so we can get you set up for next time.

Summer worship with USH: The Power of Community

ALL SUMMER SERVICES WILL BEGIN AT 10AM WITH COFFEE HOUR TO FOLLOW. PLEASE JOIN US!

Every summer, we choose a worship theme for our mostly lay-led and fabulous services. This summer, our theme is the Power of Community. While we chose this before the pandemic, it feels all the more important now as we try to weave the bonds of community from a safe social distance and over the internet lines.

Yes! We will worship together this summer...at 10am, with USH Fellowship Time to follow at 11am!

Yes! Worship will continue to be online. ...at 10am!

Yes! Worship will nourish spirits, build community, and support our work for justice.

Yes! Worship will be led by an amazing line up of lay leaders sharing their wisdom, wonderings, and wishes.

Yes! We will have religious education for children.

But that's not all! While the pandemic has closed many doors to us, it has opened some other, virtual doors! This summer we will share worship and religious education with several other congregations in the region – all without leaving the comfort of your home! Rayla is coordinating creative family spiritual life and learning –stay tuned for details. The Revs have coordinated with several other congregations in CT for shared worship.

USH Summer Worship Schedule

Joint CT Services: Interdependence: Widening the Circle of Concern

(all services available on YouTube and live in Zoom at 10am)

August 30 Joint service led by UU Society: East (Manchester)

September 6 Susan Spaniol speaker, WA Peter Meny

September 13 Revs Cathy and Heather, WA Lisa Galinski

September 20 Ingathering, Revs Cathy and Heather

What an abundance of spiritual nourishment and community building we have in worship this summer, which we need all the more in this time of longing and transformation! We'll continue with our Zoom Fellowship Hours after worship, and hope that you'll continue connecting in other ways as we both widen and tighten our community connections.

We will hold our Ingathering on September 20th with all of the joy and anticipation of the new church year that this service always brings our congregation at summer's end. Though we may still be in our living room church our spirit will be in our togetherness.

In Faith and Love,

Revs Cathy & Heather

Laurie Kelliher, Worship Associate Coordinator

Sam Moffett, Musician and Tech Extraordinaire

Rayla Mattson, Director of Religious Education

Updated Policy from the USH Board of Directors as of July 15, 2020

For the safety of our members, friends and staff, the USH building and grounds, including the playground, remain closed to all activities with the exception of individual and small family group visits to the memorial gardens, and urgently necessary maintenance by members of the Building and Grounds Sub-council or USH Sexton, Kevin Girouard. Any other visits to the office or for contactless pickups and drop offs, must be scheduled in advance through our Office Administrator, Buffie Pinney, and our Rentals Manager, Rayla Mattson. In all cases, please observe masking and distancing precautions.

Note:

While we appreciate that not having ready access to the USH building and grounds can be difficult, it is necessary, for everyone's safety, to manage building and grounds use during the Covid-19 pandemic. Checking with Buffie and Rayla before planning a visit helps us to avoid unsafe situations, unnecessary confusion and inequities. Your continued cooperation with this effort is much appreciated.

Thank you for your understanding during this challenging and ever-changing time! USH Board and Ministers

The Covid Dilemma: Off to School or Not

September 8th is fast approaching. This is the new start date my kid's school district has given us for the 2020-2021 school year. Like many other families around the country, this date approaches with some trepidation, a little dread, some uneasiness and many unanswered questions. Should my kids distance learn or should they enter the school building?

When the district sent out their surveys, the answers and my decision was easy. I was not and had no intentions of sending my kids into the school building at the beginning of the year. I was content to keep them home at least in the beginning. Done. Decision made. As the summer progressed, I shared with my kids what the plan would be so we could start preparing. Only, I didn't get the response I was looking for.

My younger two are entering new schools and both were adamant that they be allowed to go into the school building. My oldest misses his friends and felt he could attend school safely. All promised to wear their mask and make good decisions and all were determined to be off to school on September 8th. This was not the conversation I was expecting to have. Now what do I do?

As I ponder this dilemma, I do find some solace in knowing that I'm not the only one sitting with this. Is it safe for my kids to go to school? Will they miss out on some learning if I keep the home? How do I work from home and make sure their lessons are getting done? If they go in the building, how can the school keep that many people safe? And the more I think, the more questions come into my head.

I'd like to think that this reflection ends with a nice happy solution that works for everyone. I'd love for there to be some simple answer to it all. The truth of course is during 2020, there have been no simple answers. Covid-19 has literally turned the world upside down. And yet, there have still been sparks of hope and joy.

In 2020 I have seen people pull together in ways I previously had wished could happen. I've made connections with people I probably would never had connected with. I learned to put down some things I thought I needed to carry or hold on to. My youngest has become fiercely independent in some powerful ways. I've reconnected with family that I swore off. I've have found time for the social justice work that my five jobs had prevented me from engaging in. I've realized that it's ok to just let my house be junkie. And cake is a complete meal.

I truly don't know where we will be on September 8th. But I do know that even with all the scariness that 2020 has brought, all the amazing things it has brought has given me something I haven't had in a long time: Hope. I wonder, what has it brought you?

Please join the staff of USH once the church year begins for our staff led Chomp and Chat lunches. More information is forthcoming in the ENews. We look forward to hearing more about how 2020 has been for you. What you need more support with, what you need to let go of and what things bring you hope. See you soon.

News from the USH Board of Directors

Letter from incoming USH President, Martha Bradley, July 15, 2020

Dear Friends,

At USH we offer a big tent, literally and figuratively. We claim to welcome and respect all comers, and to cherish diversity of people and opinions. We say that "love is the spirit of this church." If ever there was an opportunity to reach out and practice what we preach, this is it. So many people are hurting and in need of help and support.

There are many ways to address those needs. As my Grandma used to say, "It wouldn't do for us all to be the same." Not everyone wants to (wo)man the barricades, but we can all play an important role, whether caring for or accompanying others through difficult situations, educating ourselves, spreading the word, providing financial support, getting out the vote. As my Grandma also used to say (apologies to cat lovers), "There's more than one way to skin a cat."

I believe we all sense the urgency of the present moment in the history of our church community, our faith, and our country. We have taken a vital first step in maintaining our church community. Thanks to the outstanding efforts of our ministers, WAs, RE Rayla, Music Minister Sam, Office Administrator Buffie, President Elect and tech hand-holder Lisa, and others, we have successfully transitioned our services, coffee hour and many groups online, to keep our connections and sense of community alive although we can't be together in person.

Now comes the hard part: committing to maintaining our community and connectedness going forward into an uncertain future. In other words, hanging in there for the long haul.

Even though we can't be together in person, our strength and ability to make a difference for ourselves and others still lies in community. It is through collective effort, with each of us contributing our own unique gifts and creative vision, that we can meet the unprecedented challenges we face going forward.

Despite differences of opinion and approach, that can be magnified by stress and isolation, pulling together is the best way to resist being pulled apart. It's important to keep our eyes on the prize; a safer, healthier, and more equitable future for all in this country and the world.

Let's continue to love and support one another in making manifest this vision of the future by imagining and creating the church we need to make it so. Let's keep "turning and turning" together until things "come round right." I look forward to hearing your thoughts and reactions to our current challenges.

Wishing you all the very best, Martha.

From the USH Board:

We as Board, Ministers, and Staff have been taking in the recent recommendations of the UUA (you can read those for yourself, here: <https://www.uua.org/pressroom/press-releases/message-uua-president-updated-guidance-gathering> and have been reflecting upon and appreciating this 4-minute video from UU parish minister Rev. Jake Morrill: <https://youtu.be/0uAKQXagwms>. You are welcome to join us in this real-life "thought experiment" about how to live together into this new era and the new formats of congregational life that we are being called to consider. There was some discussion of these topics during the May 17th Annual Meeting; please speak with the Board, Ministers, or Staff directly if there are areas of congregational life you'd like to be more involved in.

Be Part of UU the Vote National Call-in Days to Voters in Wisconsin and Florida

Every other week until election day, UU's from across the country are making non-partisan calls together to register, mobilize, and persuade voters in 2020. The USH community is involved in UU the Vote -- we welcome more members and friends to join in this exciting effort.

The next phonebank is August 25th from 6-8 pm ET. Please sign up here!

This is an all hands on deck moment and your participation makes a difference!

- Call: Please sign up to phonebank and help us recruit more volunteers. UU the Vote has a goal of gathering 500 UUs and friends to make calls in August and September. If everyone recruits 1-2 or even more people we can make and surpass that goal. People understand what a crucial moment we are in, in Florida, Wisconsin, and in our nation.

- Share: You can send people the sign up links, send it to your lists, and share the sign up links on Facebook.

- Donate: You can also donate to help us reach these goals! Each call to a voter costs .042 cents. Would you donate $10 to reach the next 250 voters today?

UU the Vote is designed to be fulfilling, faithful, and fun as we build solidarity and power for change. We hold the phonebanks on Zoom so that we are able to make our phone calls together. We gather in, get oriented, trained in the first 30 minutes or so of the phonebank, make our calls together, and debrief and celebrate our results at the end of the session.

Thank you for your support of UU the Vote and helping get out the vote!

Please email Virginia de Lima vadelima@yahoo.com to express interest and to arrange for pickup.

Americans of Conscience Checklist:

Stronger elections, empowered voters 2020. Americans of Conscience believes that every citizen has a right to cast a ballot in every election and that voting participation is crucial to a healthy democracy.

David's Den Library

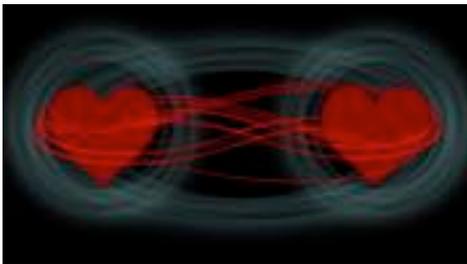

There is some excellent reading material relevant to the challenges we face as a multi-cultural society, and the current race related tensions felt across the country. Please reach out to Buffie Pinney at hartforduusociety@gmail.com if you would like to "take out" some reading material during quarantine restrictions. These books were generously donated by members so please use accordingly, and return in a timely fashion for others to enjoy.

Programs for Adults and Families

Artist's Way Group: Organizational meeting is Monday, October 19, 6:30 – 8 p.m. via Zoom. We will continue to meet in this time slot through fall and winter (except holidays), using Mira Kirschenbaum's book The Gift of A Year as the basis for our conversation. We focus on living creatively, with the appreciative eye of an artist; creative expression of all types and stripes is celebrated, though not required. If you're interested in joining us, mark your calendar now, and look for contact info here in early September. Contact Tina Davies for more info at daviesush@gmail.com.

Virtual Community Gatherings

A Connection Circle is a small group who covenant to come together for a series of meetings and provide the opportunity to one another to develop deep and meaningful connections, safe community to explore and grow spiritually. A typical meeting combines personal check-ins, readings, guiding questions, and individual sharing focused on a particular theme. Connection Circles typically run for 8 weeks for 2 hours per week. Meetings will be held by Zoom, and Zoom assistance is available if you need help getting set up. If you are interested in joining a Connection Circle, please text Martha Bradley at 860-305-3307 as soon as possible with your name and email/phone number.

Programs:

20's/30's Group: Get together with other 20s and 30s who are social distancing and feeling the need for connection! If you would like to join us for our next online gathering, please email Tara Cote at tcote11@gmail.com.

Disability Support Group: This group has moved its gathering online. Please reach out to the facilitators for more info. In this group participants discuss the challenges of physical disability (chronic illness, chronic pain, impaired senses, impaired mobility) and emotional pain (loss, mental illness) and the stresses of caretaking a loved one. What is said in the room stays in the group. Call Bill LaPorte-Bryan for more information at 860-308-2688 or email him at b37bryan@gmail.com.

Tai Chi: is canceled at USH through December 31, 2020. However, the instructor Lucky Luckingham will be offering Tai Chi three days a week from his home in South Windsor. If interested please contact Lucky directly at stephen.luckingham@gmail.com.

Accessibility and Inclusion Ministry (AIM)

USH Member Doris Maldonado is in need of help with this ministry. Please contact her at unicas.miracle@gmail.com if you would like more info. The USH AIM task force, many of whom identify as having a disability, are charged with the following mission: To welcome, integrate, and support people with physical or psychological disabilities and their families in our congregation.

Would You Like Support?

Worrying does not take away tomorrow's troubles; it takes away today's peace. These are strange times indeed. Our accustomed normalcy has been up-ended. It's natural to feel shaken under these circumstances. However if you find yourself unusually worn down by worry, nervousness or loneliness during this pandemic, your ministers have assembled a small team of counseling professionals. They have volunteered to offer free, supportive, confidential, one-on-one phone calls. If a phone session or two would feel helpful to you, please do not hesitate to contact either Rev Cathy at revcathyrionstarr@gmail.com or Rev Heather at revheatherriostarr@gmail.com. We are all in this together and together we will stay strong.

May we all stay healthy, happy and connected.

From the USH Caring Network: Please inform the Caring Network of needs, or volunteer your services. If you know of any member experiencing some difficulty, please contact Eve Pech or any member of the Caring Network so we can provide some assistance. A wide range of community services is also available to those in need by calling the Community Info Line at 211.

Church Business News

Welcome our newest members!!

When new members sign the Membership Book they covenant to the life of this congregation, to respect its heritage, support its health, contribute their talent, time and resources as best you are able to assure that it is a generous community, a learning community and a community of service. In return the existing members covenant to welcome the new members with respect and acceptance for their unique selves, their inherent goodness and worth. They pledge to creating in this community a place of free and reasoned inquiry, where all may continue to learn and grow, and to maintain healthy relationships and take only those actions which love and respect demand. Please join us in welcoming our newest members Rev. Dr. Jan Carlsson-Bull and Ruth Rempt.

Rev. Dr. Jan Carlsson-Bull is a Unitarian Universalist minister, as of June 2019 retired, or “rechanneled”. She has served congregations in Meriden, CT; Kingston, NY; Cohasset, MA; and New York City. During this time, she has held leadership positions in professional associations and community organizations, with a focus on racial and immigrant justice and trauma response.

Before ordination, Jan worked in the private and non-profit sectors and was active in multiple community ventures. She holds a B.A. in philosophy from the University of Colorado; an M.Div. from Union Theological Seminary, NYC; and a Ph.D. in Developmental Psychology from Yeshiva University, NYC. Amid these pandemics, she continues to be active in the immigrant rights movement, racial justice matters, and advocacy initiatives for progressive voting. Additionally, she is learning Spanish, savoring free-range reading and writing and hoping mightily to return to ocean swimming as soon as the beaches become less crowded. Jan resides in Middletown with her husband Dr. Daniel Bull and their character of a mutt, Pablo. Their blended family includes three daughters and three adorable grandkids, whom they miss so much during this time of social distancing. Jan is a member of both the Unitarian Society of Hartford, as of this spring, and the Unitarian Universalist Congregation at Montclair, NJ as of 1979. She was a USH delegate at General Assembly 2020 and a chaplain for UUMA Ministry Days 2020.

Ruth Gitchell Rempt is a lifelong UU who grew up in the Universalist Church of West Hartford. Professionally, she is a semi-retired Registered Dietitian/ Nutritionist. In her free time, she loves to sing and do yoga. She has had a long association with the UU Retreat and Conference Center at Ferry Beach in Saco, Maine; and she served on their Board of Directors for 10 years. Ruth has moved a lot, but always found a UU congregation to participate with. She now lives at Seabury in Bloomfield, where she is a member of the UU Connection Circle and represents UU's on the Residents' Spiritual Life Committee. Ruth has enjoyed participating in the "Wellspring" Program sponsored by the 3 local UU congregations this past year. She is looking forward to becoming more active at USH in the future.

Online Donations:

After some FAQ's regarding our online donations (via our website) I did some digging and was informed that the online donating is a 2-step process requiring members to input their credit card information twice, once on our USH

website and then again on PayPal. Pay Pal is the site that actually processes the transaction, and the office (Buffie) receives notifications when a donation is received. Please contact Buffie Pinney with any questions or concerns at hartforduusociety@gmail.com or 860-233-9897.

As a reminder, the Meeting House is closed for all "in-person" gatherings for now, and we ask your help in strengthening our connections during this time. Call someone in the congregation! Organize a Zoom hangout or Connection Circle! Keep telling us your good news – new babies and such, and challenges you wish to share in worship or simply hold in confidential prayer and love.

Moving Events Online:

We are updating our online calendar with events that are moving to an online format during this time when all in-person gatherings are cancelled. If you are an event organizer, please let Buffie know if you would like to move your program online into our USH Zoom Room (and if you need help learning to use Zoom).

Resources for the food insecure and places to give:

These are tough times for many folks already living paycheck-to-paycheck and/or food insecure. If this is you, please reach out to the Revs so we can mobilize some financial and/or food support for you. Here are a few community resources for food in particular:

- Bloomfield food for kids: Carmen Arace Middle School food pick-up: Breakfast 8:00-9:00am and lunch 12:00-1:00pm. It's a drop-in pick-up only.
- West Hartford Meals for kids and adults: <https://www.smores.com/jxwvz>
- Hartford meals for kids: <https://ct-kids.org/>
- Foodshare has mobile sites for food pick up. Click here for more info:
<http://site.foodshare.org/site/PageServer?pagename=coronavirus>

Foodshare welcomes your financial contributions and is in need of volunteers especially right now. They have extra safety precautions in place. If you are not already high risk, please consider signing up. The Universalist Church of West Hartford is working to keep their pantry functioning and could use volunteers who are not in the high risk categories (underlying pulmonary/cardiac/immune issues or diabetes...and/or 50+ years old). Call Jacob Lee, their food ministry coordinator, at 860-233-3669 x109 if you are interested in helping through the coming weeks and months. See more here: <https://www.feedingamerica.org/research/coronavirus-hunger-research>

For questions about Coronavirus in CT, call 211 to talk to a person 24-hours a day, 7 days a week. The hotline is for general questions about COVID-19. If you're experiencing symptoms, contact your medical provider.

USH Choral Program Update

Director of Music Ministries Sam Moffett has been working on plans to bring back the choral program at USH through technological innovations. During the quarantine, Sam has been learning more about audio and video editing, and finished a project with the USH Choral Scholars that was recently featured in worship.

Sam plans to continue these projects when the Fall season comes around, and is hoping to start expanding it to include the full USH Choir as well.

NO PHISHING
Don't take the bait!

Email Phishing Scam Update From the UCC Pension Boards

Exploiting the Coronavirus: Massive Excel Phishing Attack.

Microsoft has reported a massive phishing campaign that uses an Excel attachment as bait. The phishing email looks like it is from the Coronavirus Research Center of John Hopkins University—a well-known medical organization in the US. The email includes an Excel attachment that is disguised as an updated list of Coronavirus-related deaths, but the file actually contains a hidden piece of malware.

If you open the infected Excel file and click "Enable Content" when prompted, a program called Net Support Manager will be automatically installed on to your computer. This program is a tool that allows someone to access your computer remotely. Cybercriminals are using Net Support Manager to gain complete control over a victim's system; allowing them to steal sensitive data, install more malicious software, and even use the machine for criminal activities. Don't be a victim!

Here are some ways to protect yourself from this scam:

Think before you click! The bad guys know that you want to stay up-to-date on the latest COVID-19 data so they use this as bait. They're trying to trick you into impulsively clicking and downloading their malware.

Remember to use the PHISH ALERT BUTTON.

Never download an attachment from an email that you weren't expecting. Even if the sender appears to be a legitimate organization, the email address could be spoofed. Always go to the source. Any time you receive an email that claims to have updated COVID-19 data, use your browser to visit the official website instead of opening an attachment or clicking a link.

Also, if you ever receive a suspicious email or text using US Hartford, USH, or the name of a staff member, please alert Buffie at hartforduusociety@gmail.com. You can find the correct emails for USH Staff, Members and Friends, in our Congregational Directory on the Members page of our website: www.ushartford.com.

Our Unitarian Universalist Principles: The member congregations of the Unitarian Universalist Association covenant to affirm and promote: the inherent worth and dignity of every person; justice, equity, and compassion in human relations; acceptance of one another and encouragement to spiritual growth in our congregations; a free and responsible search for truth and meaning; the right of conscience and the use of the democratic process, within our congregations and in society at large; the goal of world community with peace, liberty, and justice for all; respect for the interdependent web of all existence, of which we are a part. Consider the proposed 8th Principle as well! <https://www.8thprincipleuu.org/>.
